Without recognizing an existing tradition,
 Spring Woods has a very definite one —
 The tradition of winning.
 It seems that wherever the school is represented
 Not only do our participants win, but
 They win more than any other school.
 This is evident in the many "sweepstakes"
 Swept in both music and forensic contests.
 Contenders in athletic events receive
 Much publicity for their outstanding abilities.
 Representatives in many diverse areas
 May be individuals, but they're always
 "from Spring Woods Senior High, Houston, Texas."
 The ability to win comes from confidence,
 And the confidence comes from knowing
 That you can win and that others before you
 Have proven this time after time.
 In a world of changing values,
 Traditions seem to be losing their place.
 But pride will never be lost and it is this Quality that makes Spring Woods what it is —
 A school of winners.

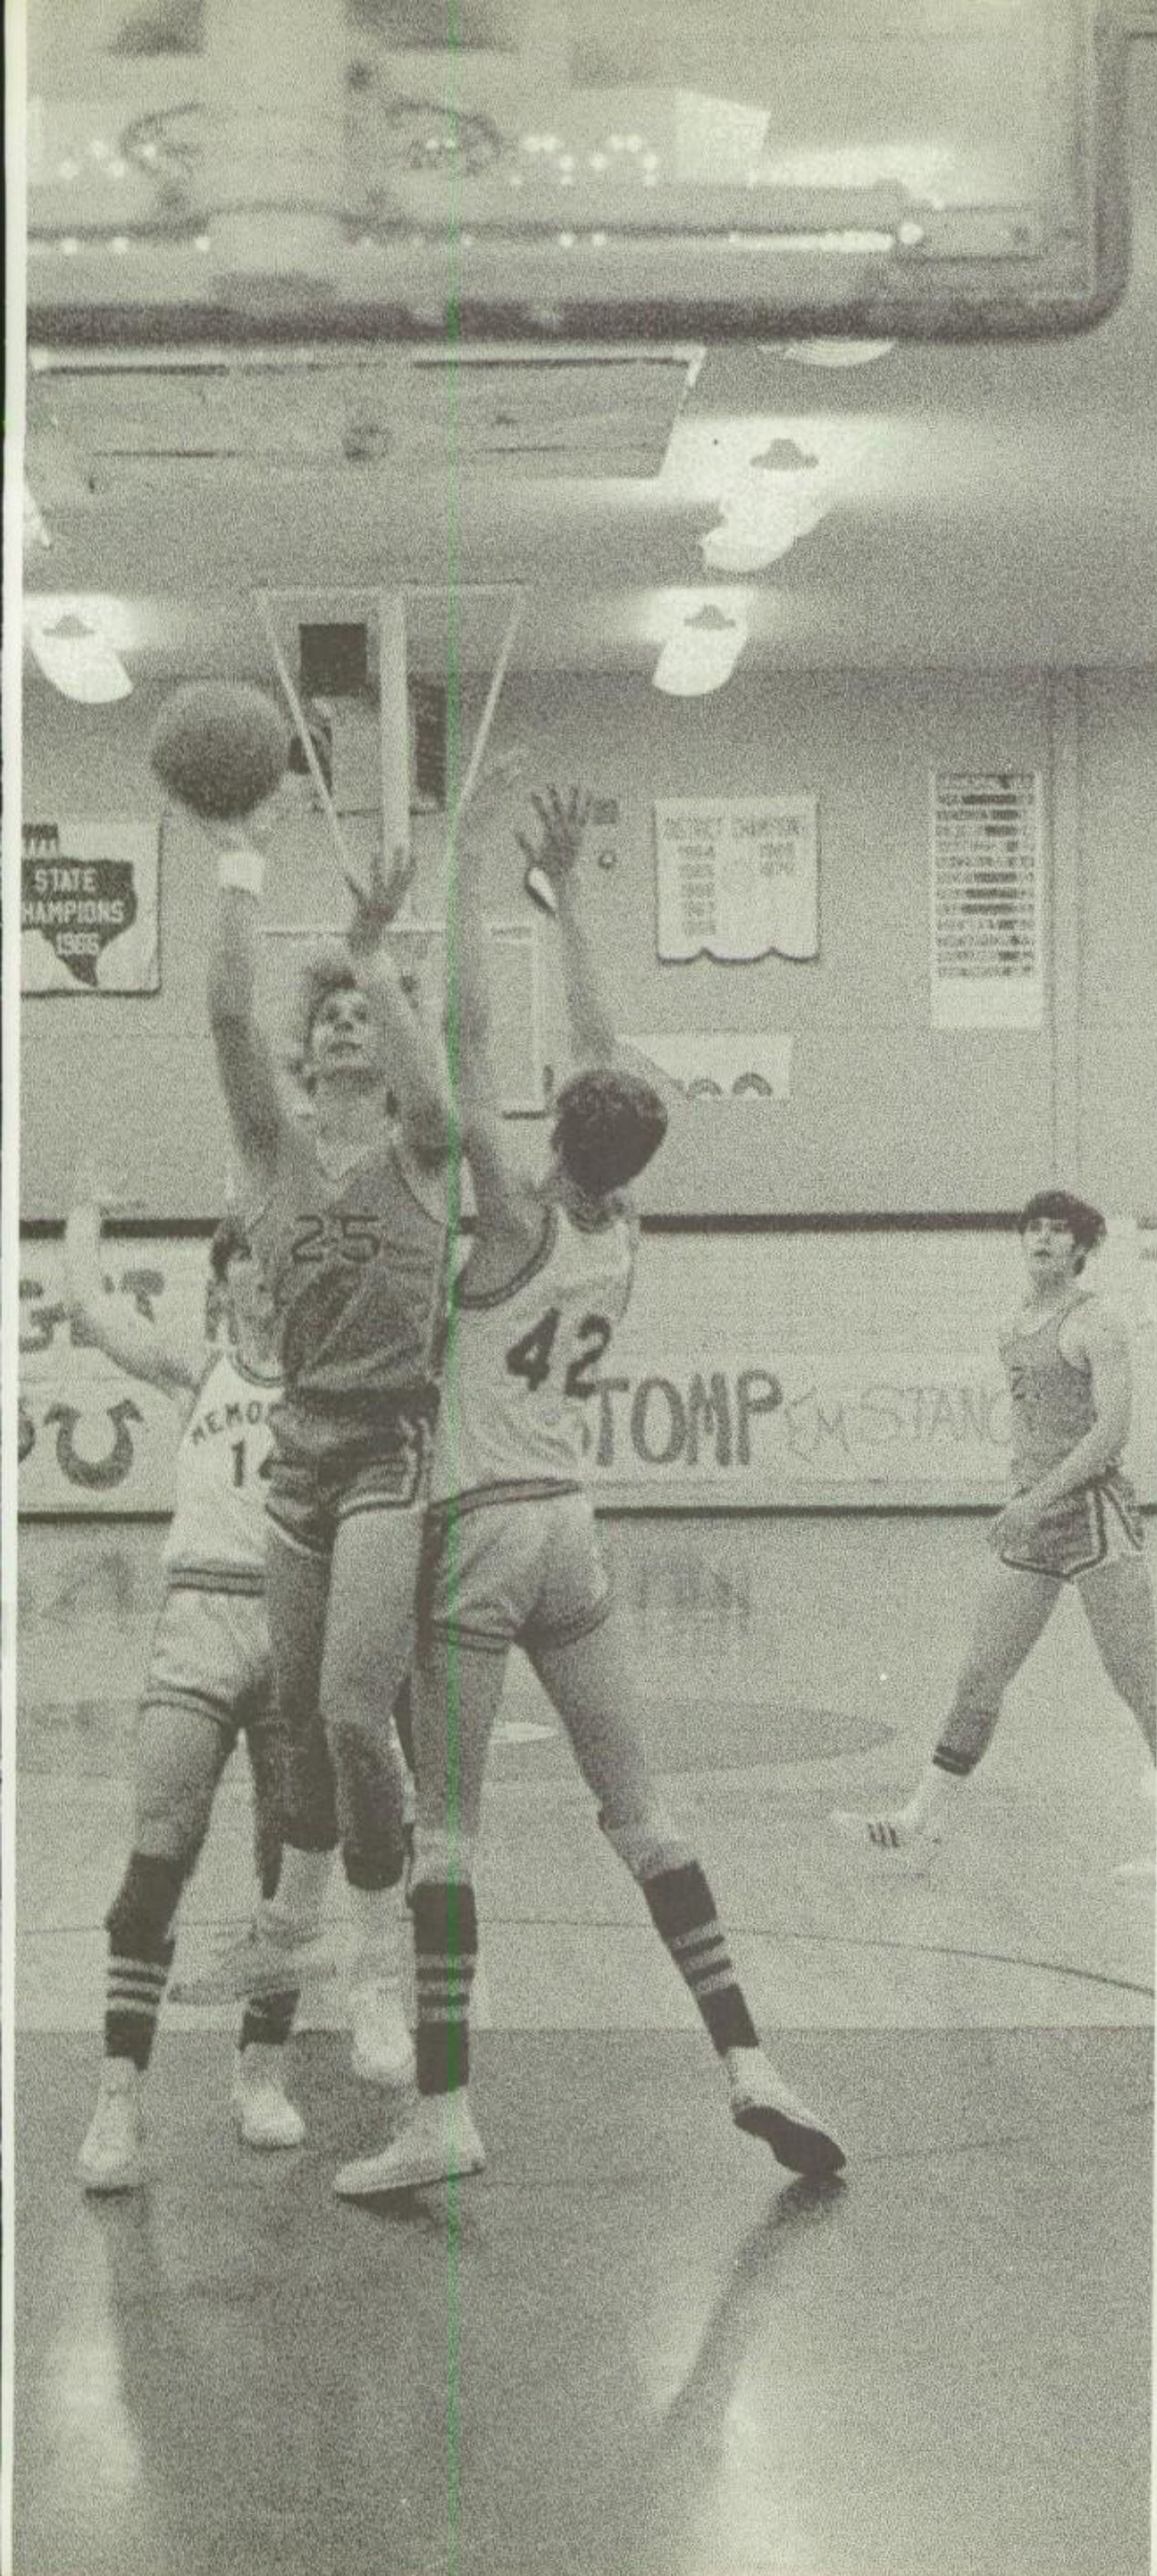

Communication is vital to every life, and
 Expression is the mode of communication.
 The Speech and Music Departments
 Encompassed many talented individuals
 Who expressed themselves verbally,
 Dramatically, vocally, and instrumentally.
 In each case, some were better than others
 And these numerous exceptions won many honors.
 Thespians joined with NFL to win "Sweepstakes"
 At both the Lamar and Bryan Adams tournaments.
 In addition, drama students worked many hours
 On three full-scale productions, including
 Their U.I.L. One-Act Play, The Fantasticks.
 Musically, the large organizations of the Marching Band, Chorale, and Orchestra
 Represented Spring Woods well at U.I.L. contests.
 Two band students made the All-State Band
 And two Chorale members, Mary Laughlin and Irene Guenther reached All-State Choir.
 Houston Symphony Concerto Contest winner
 Edward Lawrence's ability was recognized
 When he studied in summer residence with Dr. Behre.
 These students used expression to compete
 And used ability to win.

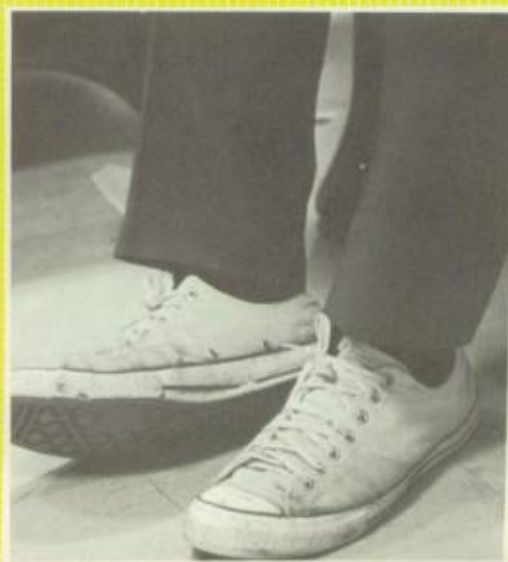

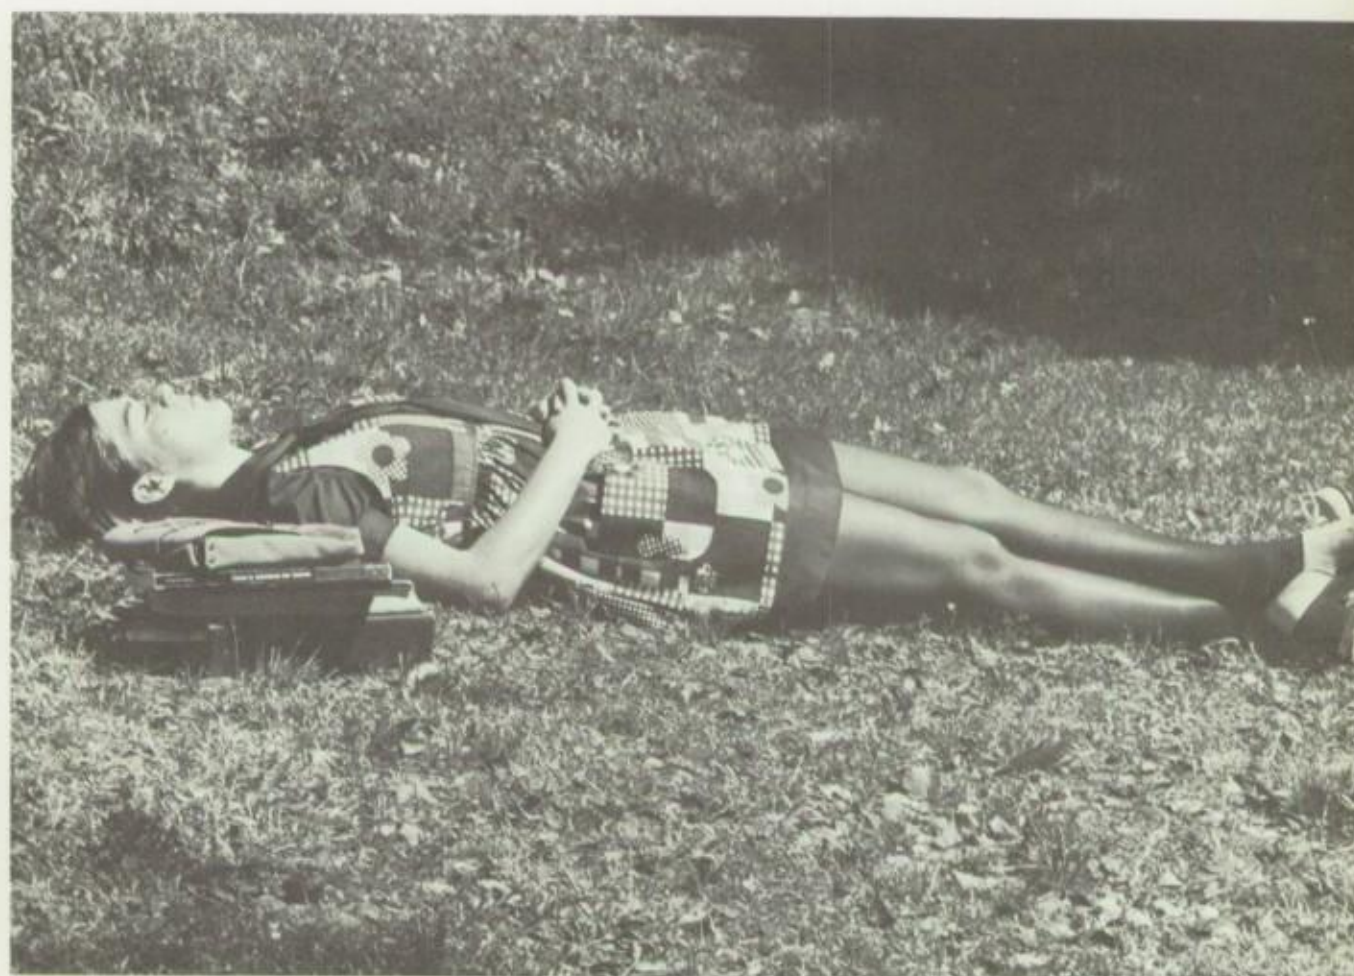

Energy, enthusiasm, and Devotion characterized the Sports teams of Spring Woods. With a solid reputation Behind them, both the Football and basketball teams Ranked high in pre-season polls. Two senior football lettermen, Will Wilcox and Rusty Parrot, Made the All-District team. Of the Cagers, senior Rick Krenzke made district. State contenders for many years, The girls' volleyball team once Again had an impressive season. Track and baseball started late In the year, but this did not Dampen their performances any. Daryl Gralka and the tennis team Journeyed far and near, Winning everywhere. These teams and these athletes Were all indicative of the Winning Tiger spirit.

Four thousand individuals comprised
 Spring Woods Senior High School.
 Their efforts, combined or alone, or
 Their apathy and abstinence determined
 The temperament of the school.
 Some did not care for the crowds and activities
 And looked outside of the school for fulfillment.
 But most committed themselves to the Organization or team of their choosing.
 Then it was practice every day after school
 Or Tuesday night meetings or weekend games.
 The results were excellent in every field
 And Spring Woods' reputation as a winner was fortified.

Students still

BRENDA SCHUSTER
RONNIE WILLIAMS

No school is just classes and books.
A school full of students
And students full of life
Generate constant activities.
The liberalized student body still
Preferred traditional pastimes, so this year's Activities were much the same as previous years'.
Fall felt the excitement of beginning again
Mixed with the enthusiasm of football season.
The bonfire brightened homecoming festivities
Which ended when Linda Ingram was crowned queen.
The holidays were made colorful
With carnations and valentines.
A major undertaking of the year,
Hello, Dolly! sold out for two February week-ends
Plus a command performance.
The pace quickened as spring approached.
Activities over-lapped but many students
Took time out to get out in the open
And get an early start on the summer ahead.
Annual events included the Tigerette Talent Show
And the Sr. Girls sponsored the Twirp Dance.
Hard campaigning occupied both cheerleading and Student Council candidates' time, while
All the "winners" who kept Spring Woods' tradition
Going were recognized on Honors Night.
The Junior and Senior Proms climaxed the Social activities and before it seemed time,
Finals, graduation, and another year were over.

Fresh Start

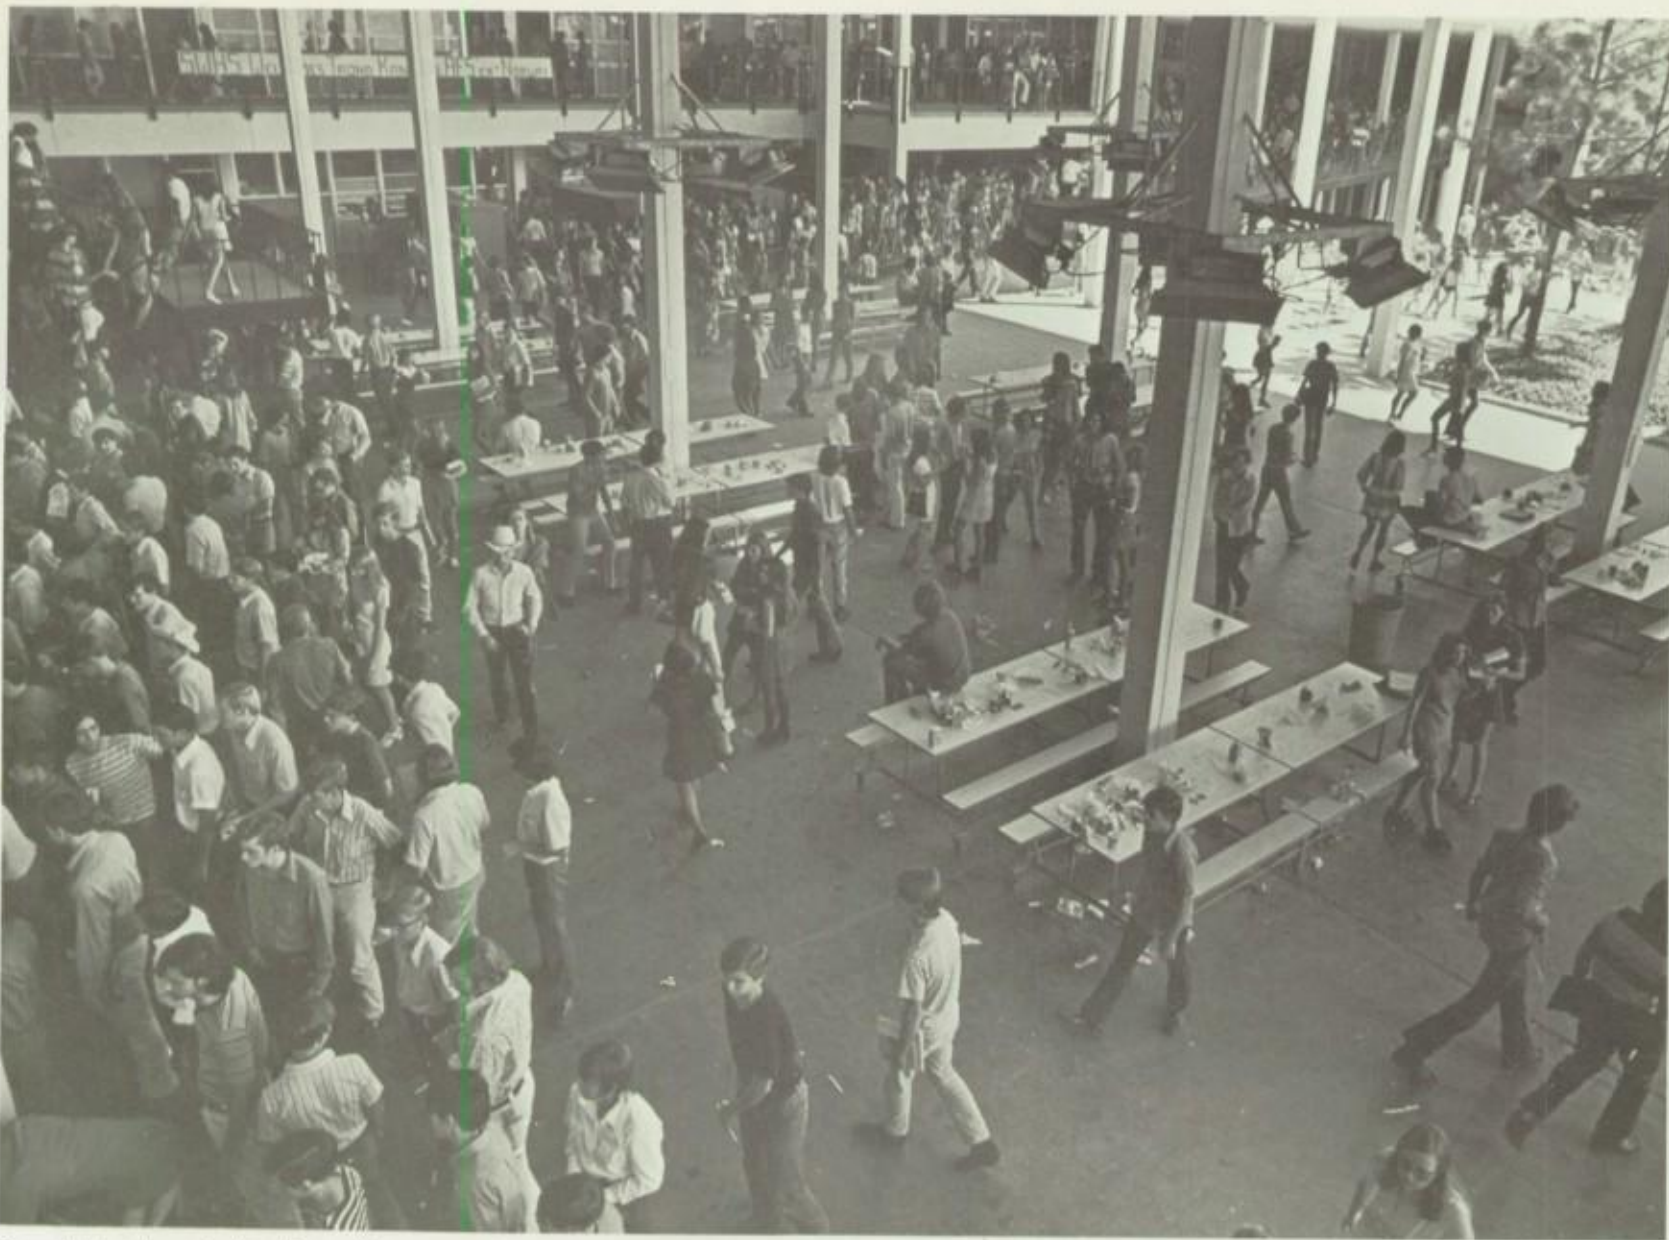

Orientation was a crash course
In high school routine.
The program attempted to familiarize
Freshmen and new students
With school procedures
And individual classes.
Student leaders provided encouragement
And extended the warm welcome
Many had hoped for.

Freshman students gather in an assembly on Orientation Day.

Mr. Emmons assists Scott Hammons, Jack Helmick, and Carl Dedear at Freshman Orientation.

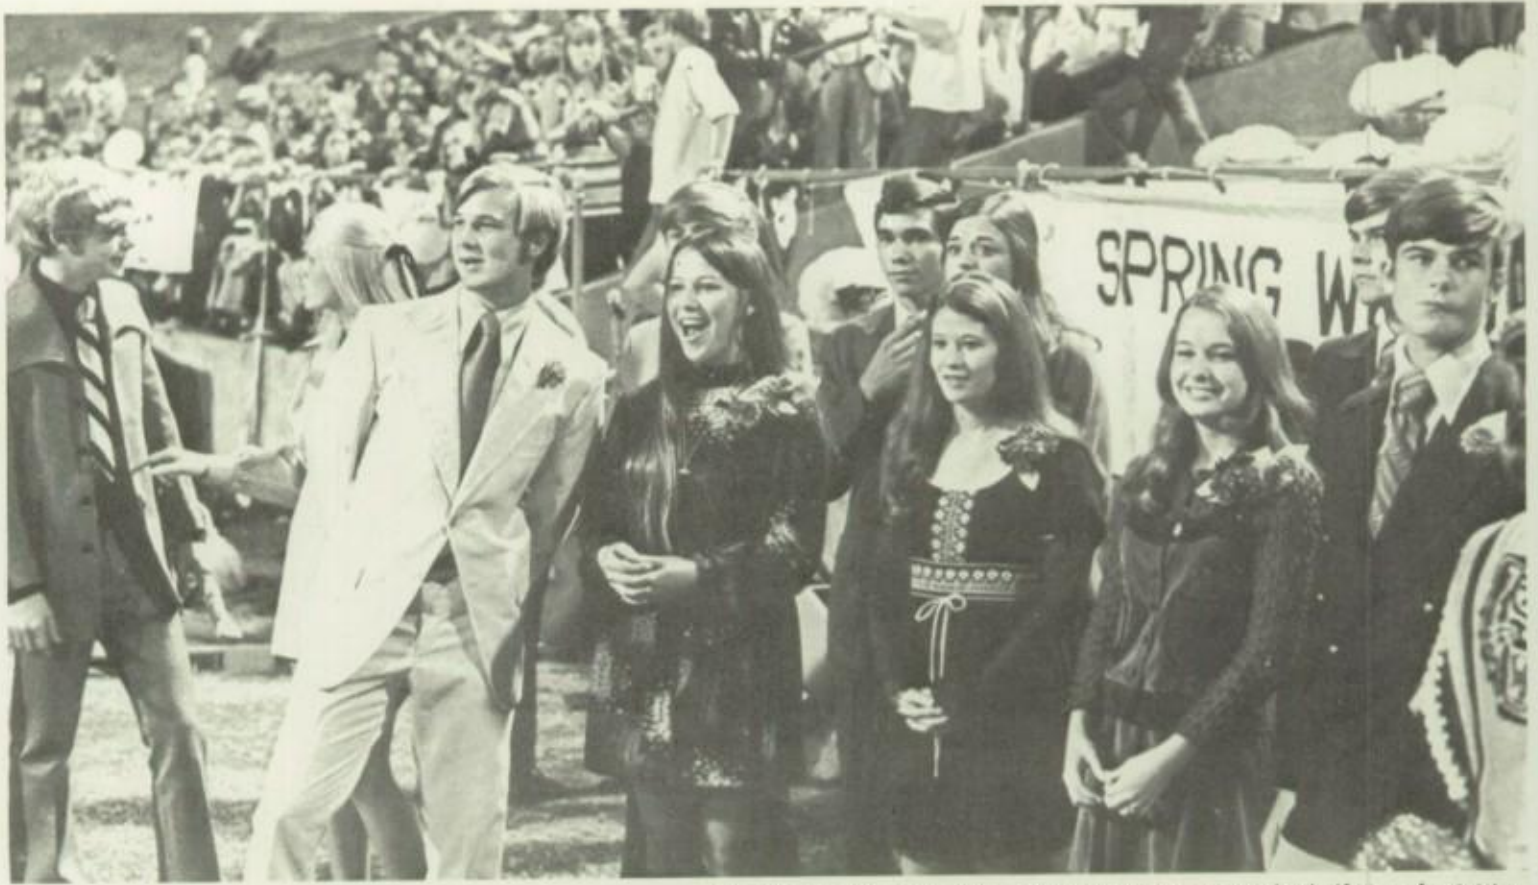

Crowded lunch periods indicated the tremendous growth of the school.

Students wait outside their counselors' doors to have appropriate schedule changes made.

The Return of the Natives

With school starting a week
 Earlier than previous years,
 4000 students returned to classes
 With feelings of resignation.
 The first day found Freshmen
 Wandering insecurely while Upperclassmen resumed their Usual pace for another year.
 Student schedule changes and
 Computer mix-ups created confusion
 In the counselors' offices.
 The congestion of lunches
 Was eased when Seniors were given
 Off-campus lunch privileges.
 All the students sensed the Excitement and frustration that
 Were part of beginning again.

The Homecoming finalists and their escorts await the half-time festivities.

The Tiger Band provides music during the Homecoming game.

Brent Davis and Linda Ingram inspect her Homecoming charm.

The finalists were Michelle Wilpitz, Cindy Frazier, Linda Placke, Linda Ingram, and Debbi Ault.

Homecoming Highlights

From ten semi-finalists,
 Five finalists were selected and
 Presented at the MacArthur pep rally.
 Votes were tallied in homeroom
 Prior to the Homecoming game.
 Linda Ingram, escorted by Brent Davis,
 Was presented during half-time of the game
 As the 1971 Homecoming Queen.
 Linda was crowned by W. W. Emmons
 And Todd Wehner,
 Vice-president of Student Council,
 Presented her with a bouquet of red roses.
 Following the game, a Homecoming dance
 Was held to climax
 An evening of excitement and tradition.

A glow from the bonfire reflects on the crowd.

Sparks of Spirit

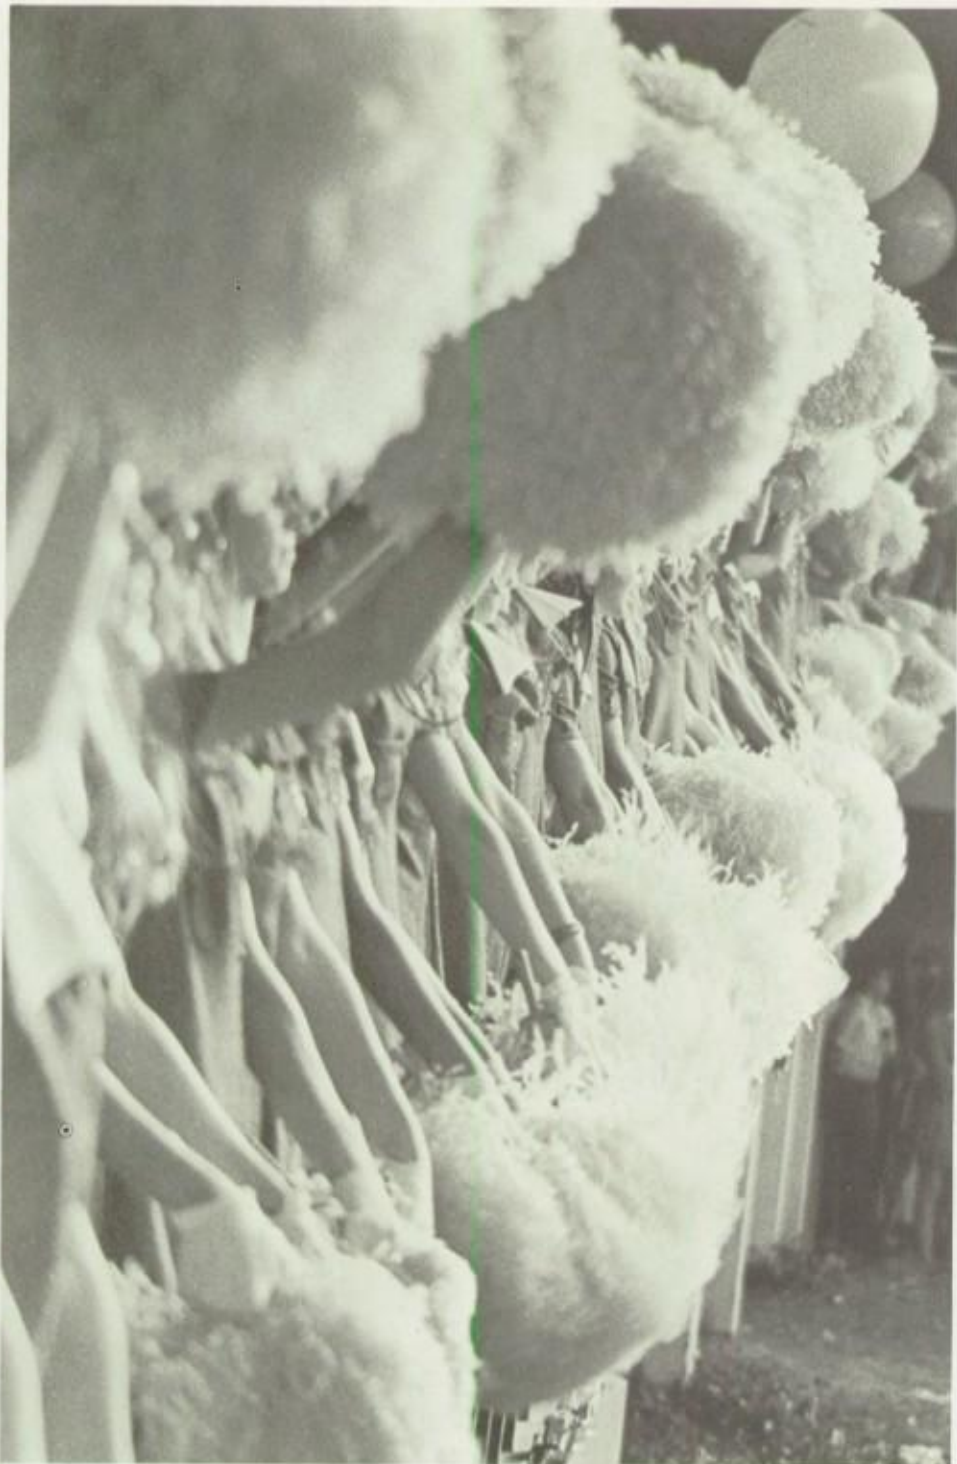

Alpha Omega,
Coined by themselves
As "Senior Men,"
Scavenged firewood for
Two weeks before the bonfire.
Construction began at 6:30 A.M. on Tuesday, October 26, and was Finished less than five hours later.
The boys painted and placed signs
Atop the structure,
Which was the biggest in Spring Woods' history,
Being higher than
Fire regulations permitted.
Torches were set to the bonfire
At 7:00 P.M., and it
Burned for three hours,
Making a fitting introduction
For Homecoming Festivities.

Senior Boys display their finished product.

Rallying Pep

Spirit was an activity in which Everyone could participate. Student Council promoted this contagious Enthusiasm by selling balloons for the Homecoming and Spring Branch games. Posters decorated the school and Football players' houses each week. Cheerleaders initiated an award for the organization making the most posters. Entertainment was provided by Tigerettes and The Tiger Band, encouraging the Students' overwhelming support.

The members of the Mime Troupe assemble in their famous pyramid formation.

Kidstuff

The music and drama departments
 United for two nights in Musical-mime entertainment.
 Performances based on the theme
 "Kidstuff"
 Were presented on October 21 and 23.
 A new polyvinyl sheet replaced a
 Curtain between the audience and stage
 To give a unique distance effect.
 Standard mimes, "The Rope,"
 "The Leader," and others
 Were performed between musical acts.
 The Choirs, Chorale, Safari Singers,
 Band, and the Safari Players
 Contributed to a performance
 Worthy of the standing ovation.

Students enjoy the Valentine's Dance in their own way.

Heart Hop

Valentine's Day was preceded
By a dance held on February 12, in the school gym.
The Freshman class,
Sponsoring the dance,
Engaged Spencer to play for
The capacity crowd.
Appropriate decorations of Hearts, cherubs, and cupids
Adorned the walls and provided
A fitting atmosphere
For Valentines.

Students dance to the beat of Spencer.

The Chorale and Mixed Choir perform "The Magnificat" at the Christmas concert.

The Spirit of Christmas

The Christmas spirit was displayed and
 Celebrated in various ways throughout the school.
 Each club and organization
 Made their individual contribution
 To complete the Christmas season.
 Providing seasonal salutations in song,
 The annual Christmas concert was presented by the Chorale and Mixed Choirs, and
 A candlelight concert was given by the Four district Girls' Choirs in the school mall.
 Future Homemakers of America and
 Foreign language clubs
 Caroled in several neighborhoods,
 Extending the Christmas spirit.
 An International Christmas Party was sponsored
 By the foreign language clubs
 Adding a foreign flair.

 Allowed each grade to select
 A Mr. and Miss Santa Claus.
 The Senior class chose
 Linda Placke and Tommy Maniscalco
 To receive the honors.
 Leta Tautenhahn and Rudy Bolin
 Were selected by the Juniors.
 Sophomores crowned Sherrie Burson and Denver Price
 As their favorites.
 Gail Ball and Mike McDaniels
 Represented the Freshman class.
 Christmas festivities were cut short
 By final exams the week before the holidays,
 But the Christmas spirit prevailed throughout.

The Student Council's Christmas tree is displayed in the library.

Seniors Denise Pyeatt, Cindy Frazier, and Marc Moore unpack the shipment of carnations.

Janet Luce and Linda Pickle, seniors, count out carnations for distribution.

Flower Power

Carnation sales were a two-week affair
 With Senior salesmen soliciting
 Flowers at fifty cents apiece.
 Six standard colors were available this year
 With the traditional black being omitted.
 Flowers were to be handed out December 17,
 But, due to poor growing conditions,
 Carnations did not arrive until January 14.
 The Senior class sponsored the carnation sales
 To earn money for the Senior Prom.
 Selling 8600 carnations
 Produced a record-breaking profit of $2400.
 Carnation sales again proved to be
 An effective way of raising prom money and
 An appropriate mode for expressing affection.

Mrs. Ruhe admires Debbi Vela's 86 carnations; the most received by any student.

Buy My Valentine

Valentines were expressions of Friendship and affection.
The project, sponsored by
The Sophomore class,
Made a profit of $2000
For their senior prom.
Sweetheart, Buddies, Secret Admirers,
And singing valentines were sold
For 15 and 25 cents each,
With the Sophomore class
Purchasing more love notes
Than any other level.
The valentines were distributed on
Valentine's Day, February 14,
After one and a half weeks of sales.
The Sophomore class with 117 able salesmen,
Made Valentine's Day a success once more.

Sophomores, Billy Woodruff, Gordon Walton, and Roger Holder, stuff valentines into various bags.

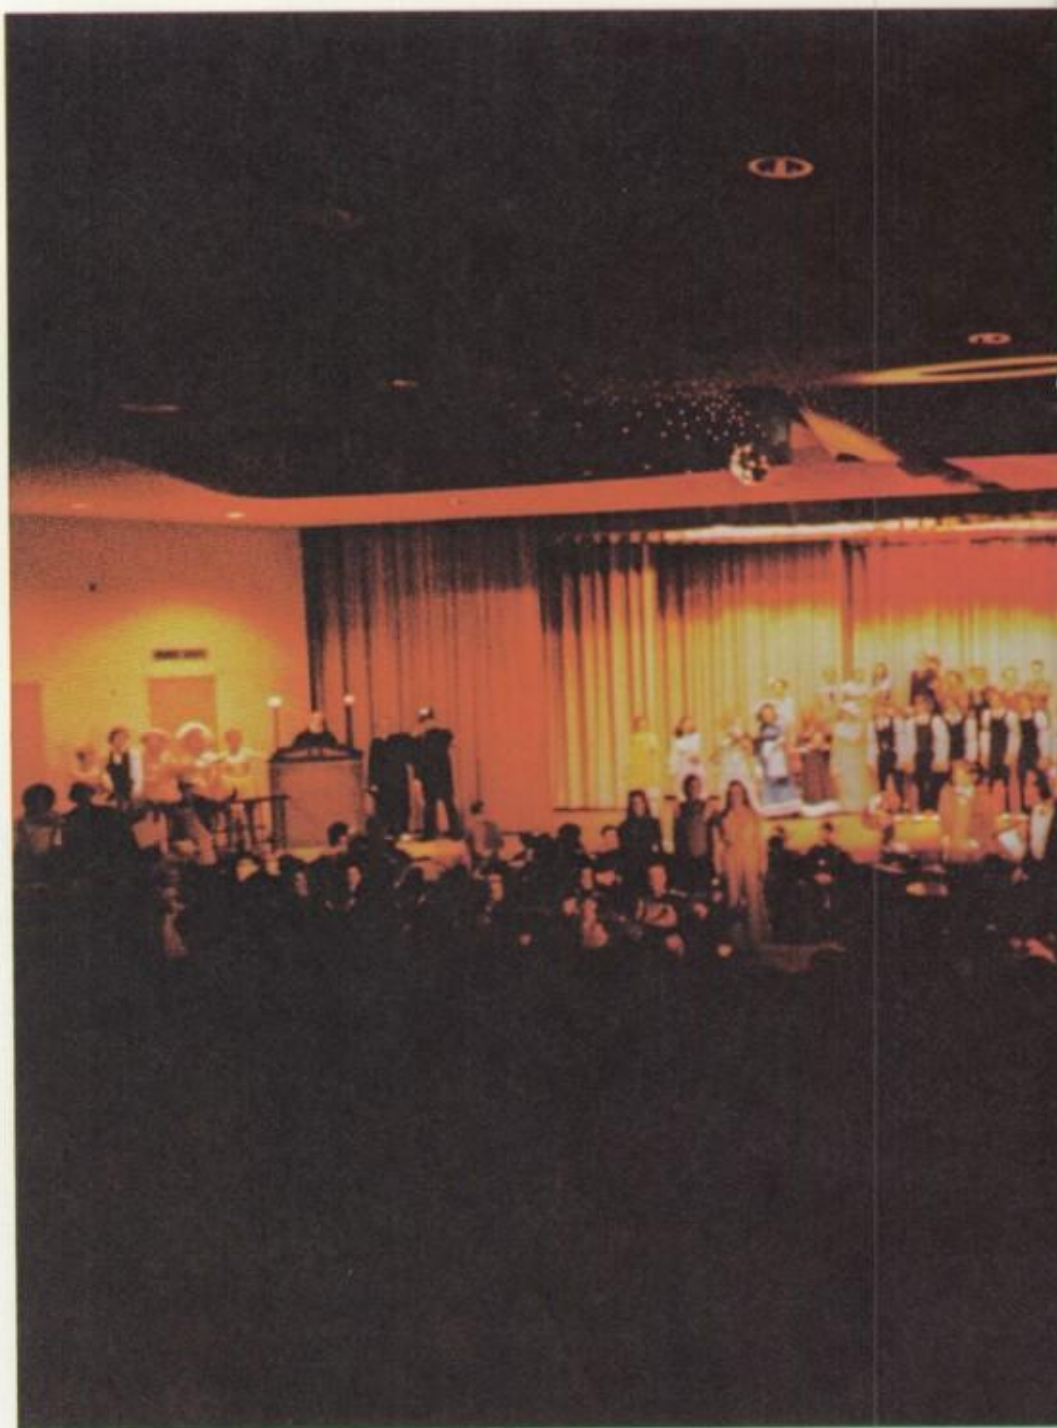

Barbara Hanley, sophomore, signs valentines according to requests of purchasers.

Singing "Metter on Sunday," Debbie Carter, Vicki Stonestreet, and Laura Luthy, serenade recipients of singing valentines.

"Hello Dolly" Premieres

The cast of Hello Dolly!
Opened with a spectacular performance
The night of February 18.
All performances were sold out,
With standing room only tickets
Sold on two occasions.
Tickets for the command performance
On February 24, were sold out
Two hours after the box office opened.
Each performance received
A well-deserved standing ovation,
A fitting tribute to
The 206 individuals
Who made the production
A definite success.

The cast of Hello Dolly appears for the grand finale.

"Irene Malloy," Carol Wise, dreams of the day she will wear ribbons down her back.

"Minnie Fay," Donna Lees, "Irene Malloy," and "Dolly Levi," Irene Guenther, march for motherhood.

"Dolly Levi," Irene Guenther, uses reverse psychology on "Horace Vandergelder," Denver Griffith, to suggest the possibility of marriage.

Bob Matthis, Kevin Willis, and Steve Stonestreet await Dolly's arrival.

"Cornelius," Laurence Musgrove and "Barnaby," Steve Brack, proudly present the face of "pedigree Minnie."

"Cornelius Hackl," Laurence Musgrove, "Barnaby Tucker," Steve Brack, and the Instant Glee Club harmonize the virtues of femininity.

Dolly presents herself as an attorney-at-law after an arresting disturbance at the Harmonia Gardens.

Original Dolly Sends Wishes

Set in the 1890's, Dolly Levi
Plays New York's foremost matchmaker
For Mrs. Irene Malloy and Cornelius Hackl.
She also "meddles" with the lives of Barnaby Tucker and Minnie Fay, and Ambrose Kemper and Ermengarde.
Through a little scheming, Dolly manages to prompt
A proposal for herself from Horace Vandergelder,
"The well-known Yonkers half-a-millionaire."
Michael Stewart, scriptwriter, and
Cliff Yuens, who played Barnaby on Broadway,
Viewed the production here.
A "break-a-leg" telegram was sent
To the cast by Carol Channing,
Along with her hat from the Broadway show.
These best wishes, but mostly hard work,
Produced an enjoyable evening of entertainment.

Horace envisions his future wife's uses in "It Takes a Woman."

Dolly convinces "Ambrose Kemper," David Asch, and "Ermengarde," Laura Luthy, to enter a polka contest.

Mike Croes excitedly reports Dolly's return to Kevin Willis.

The Fourteenth Street Association Parade fills the stage with "Before the Parade Passes By."

Dolly and the dancing waiters perform for the patrons' delight at Harmonia Gardens.

The chorus gives Barnaby and Cornelius a warm farewell as they depart for New York.

Dolly plans for being the new Mrs. Vandergelder after Horace's proposal.

"Minnie Fay," Donna Lees, and Mrs. Irene Malloy, discuss plans to entertain two handsome gentlemen.

"We're going to New York!" Barnaby and Cornelius imagine the delights of city life.

Dolly Levi greets the waiters at Harmonia Gardens with a rousing version of the title song.

A Matchmaking Success

Irene Guenther was a sparkling star
In the role of Dolly Gallagher Levi.
Her leading man, Denver Griffith, played
A very believable and coarse Horace Vandergelder.
Other leads included Laurence Musgrove,
A show-stealing Cornelius Hackl, and his sidekick
Barnaby Tucker, portrayed by Steve Brack.
In the hat shop, Mrs. Irene Malloy
And her assistant, Minnie Fay, were played by Carol Wise and Donna Lees respectively.
The production was directed by W. H. Young,
Who was assisted by Anna Simmons and Gwynn Carter.
Miss J. Cocke was responsible for Musical direction, while Mrs. E. Frame and
Tim Stickley directed art and stage management.
Their efforts and those of the students of
The music, drama, and art departments,
Spanned two months of try-outs, rehearsals,
And, finally, five outstanding productions.

Horace Vandergelder denounces Cornelius's decision to open his own store, having been informed of such by Minnie and Irene.

Linda Placke, "Ernestina Money," wails an old-fashioned tune while waiting for her escort of the evening, Horace Vandergelder.

"Let Me Entertain You"

Weeks of hard work
Went into the Tigerette Talent Show
That operated around a theme of
"The Wonderful World of Entertainment."

SUSAN MURRAY
DARYL GRALKA

Perpetuating its leading district rank,
Spring Woods continued to be a winner
In terms of academic excellence.
The first purpose of any school is
Education in the classroom.
The composition of a suburban neighborhood
Dictates that the area schools
Provide the best education affordable
Which features a strong college preparatory program.
A dozen inter-school departments enabled students
To obtain a broad education in basics
While specializing in courses of interest
Or vocational training.
A regimented curriculum, previously proven
To be commendable, was once again followed.
This was supplemented with a
Few innovations, generally provided
By new faculty or ideas
Gleaned from other educational institutions.
Trial independent study was brief
But a start was made toward
Modernizing teaching and learning techniques.
On the vocational side,
DECA held its area convention here and the Job training program enrollment was expanded
When the Spring Branch Career Center began
Accepting students for next fall.
The academic make-up of the school,
If not exciting, was excellent.

Grammar School

English was the study of communication
Throughout the ages.

Grammar exercises sharpened students'
Awareness of clarity, accuracy, and precision.
Literature exposed pupils to social problems
And moral beliefs of different peoples.
Independent study was initiated on the Senior level.

Many plays were performed,
Giving students a visual experience.
Principles learned in English classes
Helped students in self-expression,
An invaluable asset in other courses.

The Family of Man

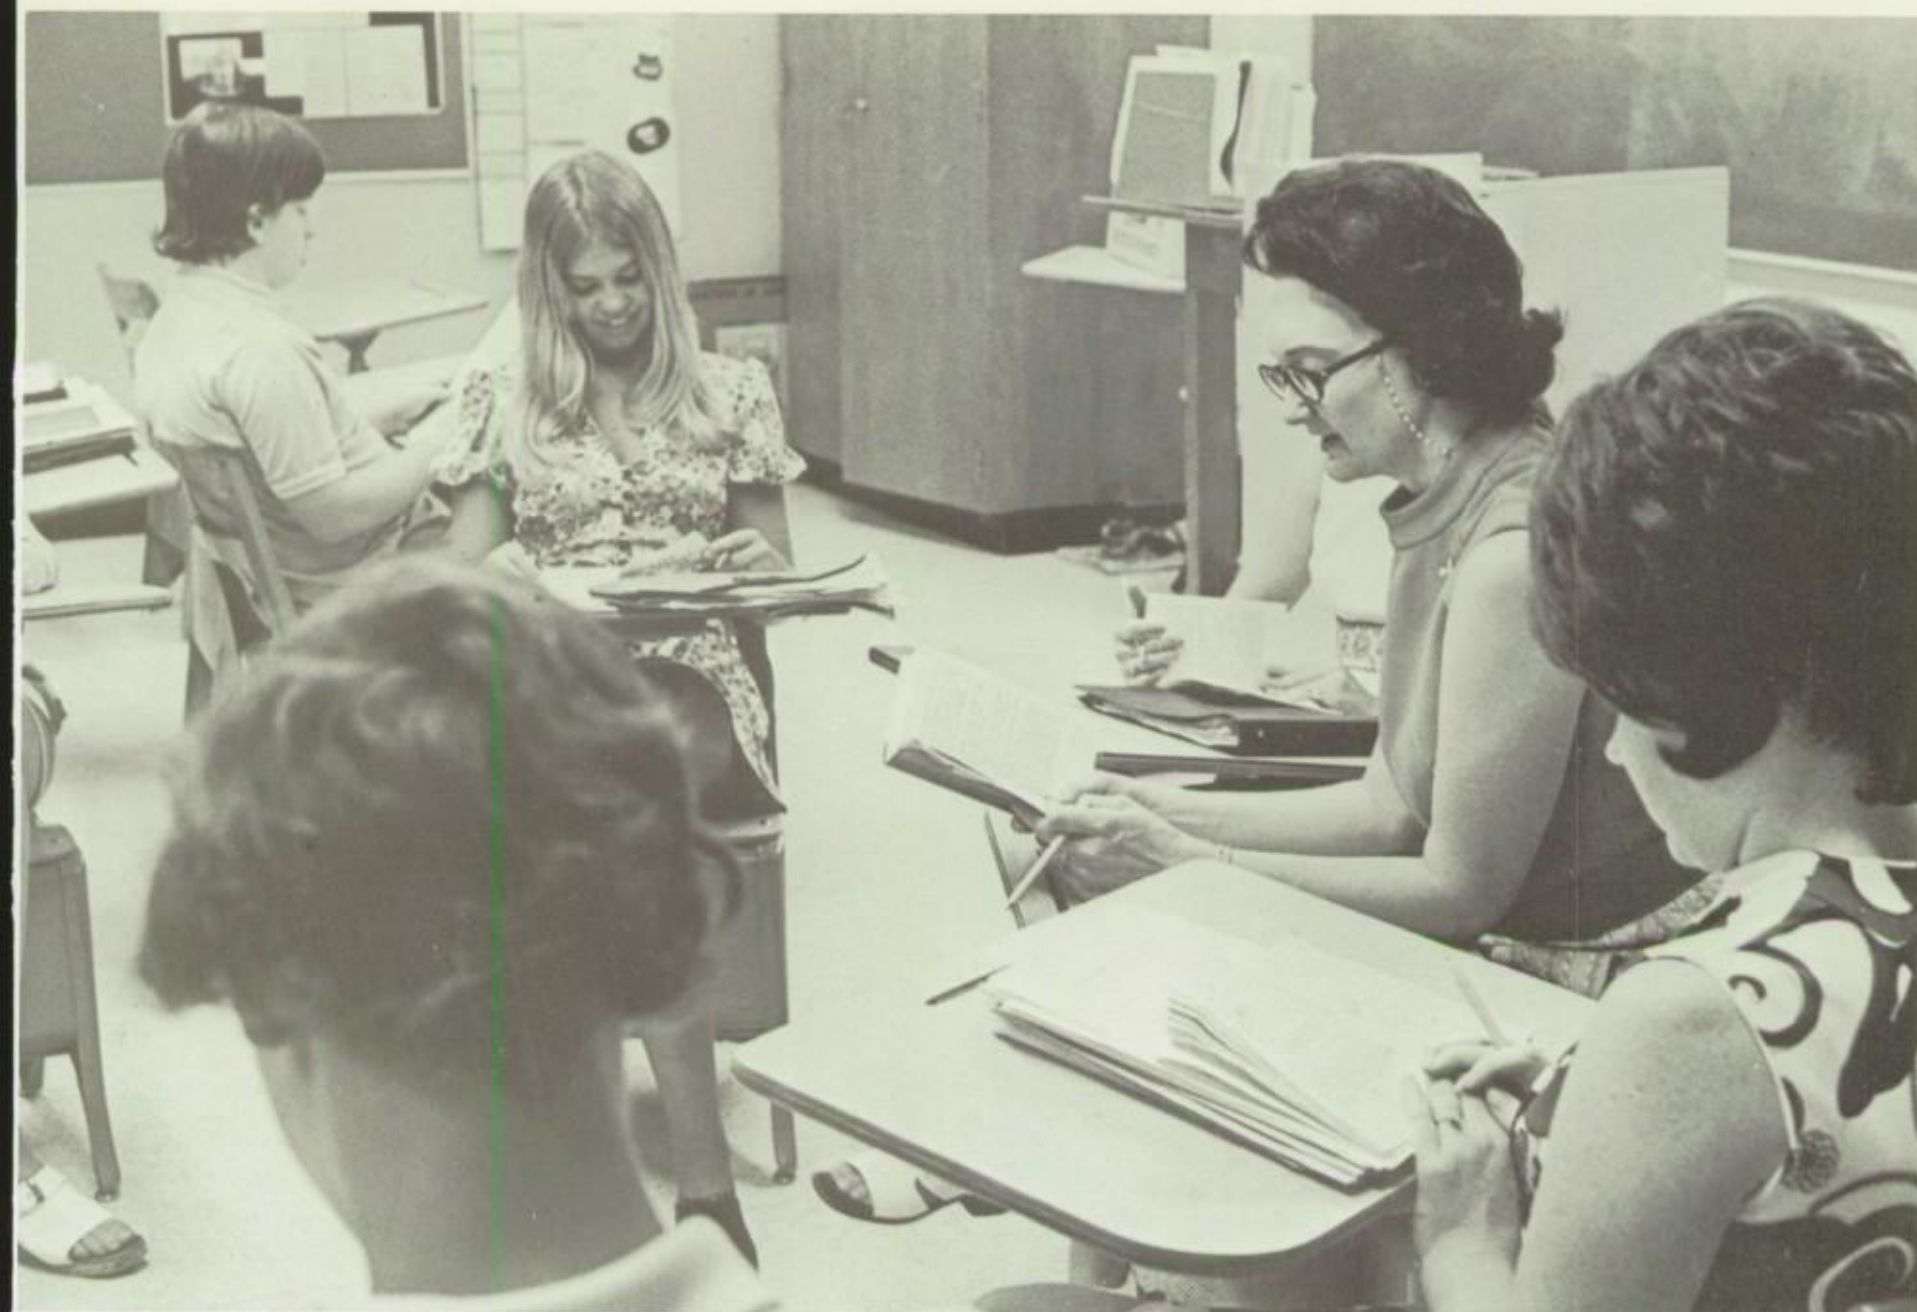

The study of Humanities
Began with man's first societies
And continued through
Modern times.
Students concentrated
On learning the history
Of man's art, philosophy,
Music and religion,
And applied their
New-found knowledge
To contemporary societies.

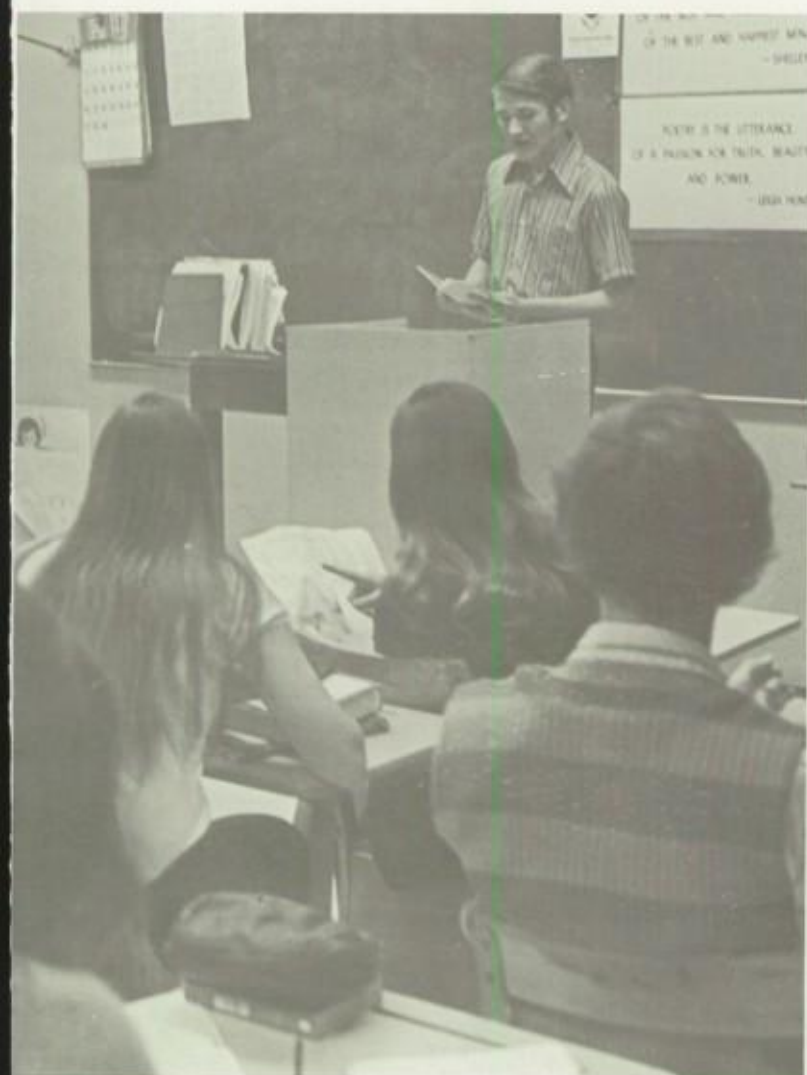

A Humanities class listens to a lecture on Renaissance music.

Miss P. Luther shows her Humanities class an example of an impressionistic painting.

Mrs. H. Layne leads a discussion in comparative novels.

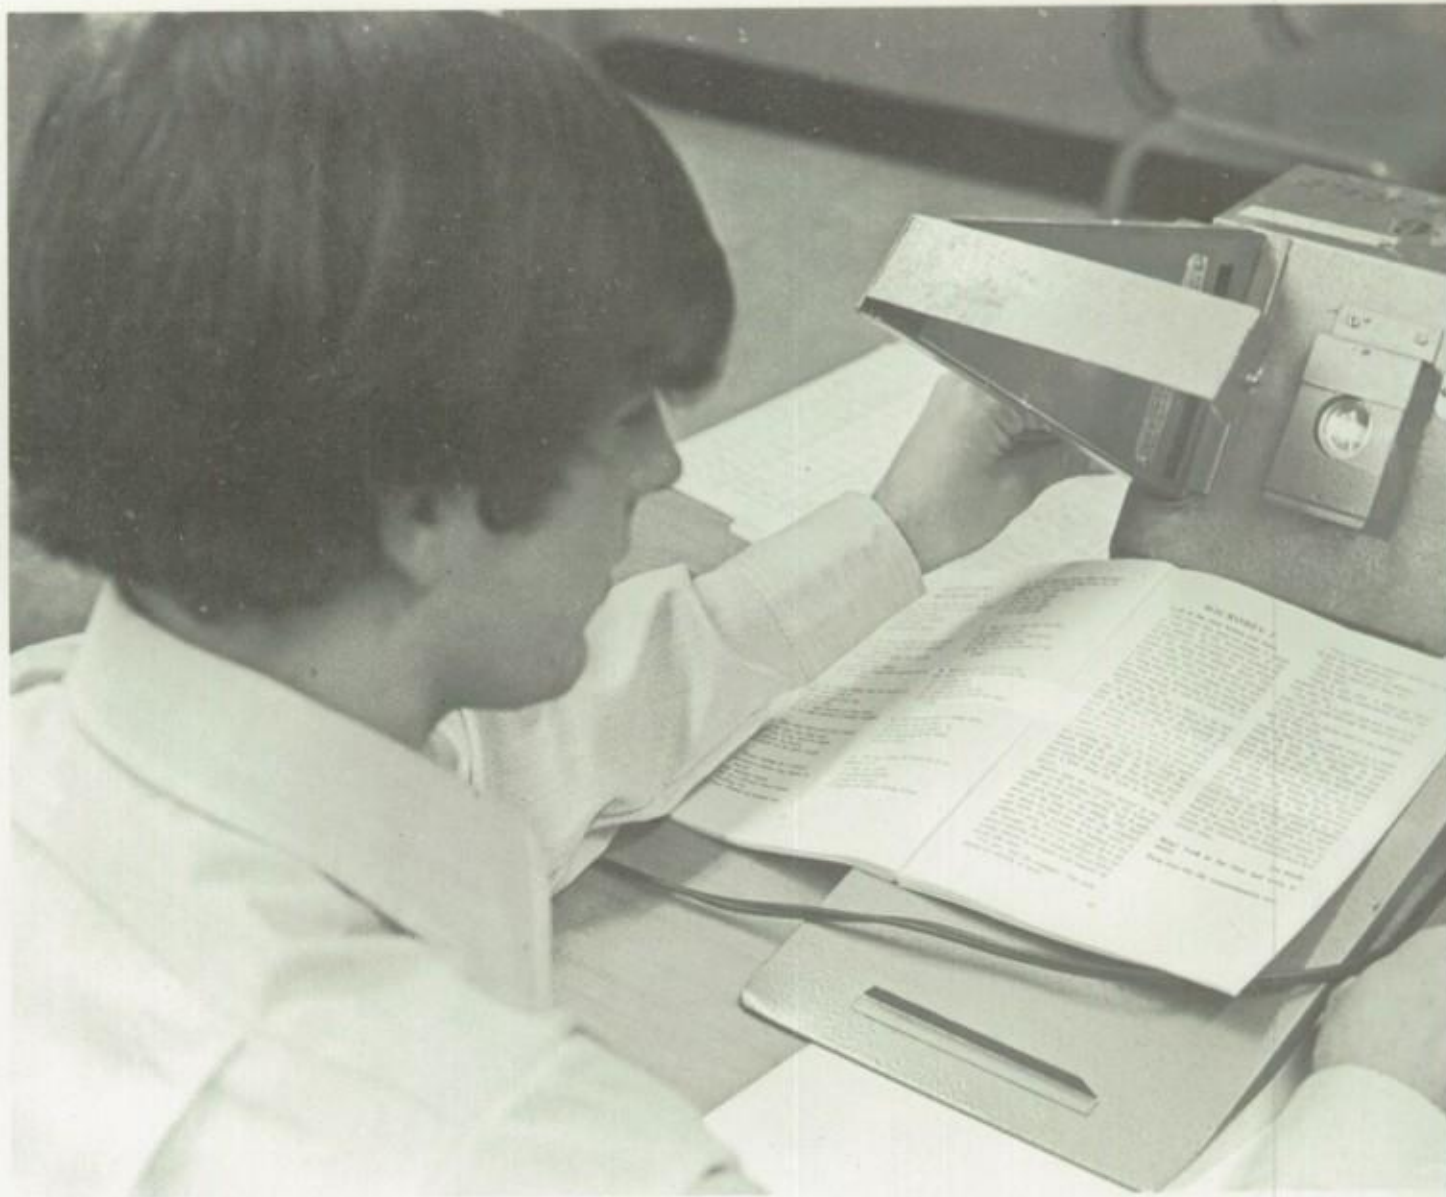

Senior Ronnie Richey reads a theme to his creative writing class.

Exploring Literature

For those who desired
To express themselves beyond
English compositions,
And explore literature other than
The required pieces,
Creative Writing and Comparative Novels
Proved to be a welcome solution.
Reading, discussing, and comparing
The styles and subject matter
Of famous authors
Gave them insight and inspiration
To develop their own
Literary abilities.
Emphasis was placed
On learning to appreciate

Hoping to expand their horizons,
Foreign Language students
Worked to become proficient
In their chosen tongues.
Beginning with single words
And pronunciations,
They progressed to
Simple sentences and dialogues.
Tapes, visual aids, and constant repetition
Were employed as a means
To accelerate learning.
Higher level classes
Read foreign novels
And were conducted entirely
In the given language.
Plays, extra-curricular clubs,
And state-wide competition,
Such as the German and French symposiums
Held in San Antonio,
Gave students the Necessary stimulus to grow fluent
In a foreign language.

To Students
As an art of wisely
Buying and selling with the aid
Of persuasive advertising.
Teachers taught the fine points
Of insurance contracts, income tax returns,
And various types of budgeting.
Speakers encouraged students' interest in a matter
Of critical importance to everyone.

Mr. K. Sutherland, economist, speaks to a Consumer Ed class on the danger of false advertising.

Terri Dexter, junior, gives a report on consumer buying.

Scientifically Speaking

Exploring the complexities
Of science
Through experimentation
And formula solving,
Students probed the mysteries of
The universe.
An introductory course of Physical Science preceded Basic Biology and
The more advanced classes
Of Chemistry and Physics.
Guest speakers, visual aids
And frequent use of Laboratory equipment
Helped students to gain
A better understanding
Of natural phenomena.

A Bell Telephone representative makes visible the beam from a laser.

Chemistry I-K students look on as Mr. R. Layne experiments with a neon tube.

Juniors Jennifer Brock, Debbie Stockman, and Sharon Wright employ teamwork in doing their homework.

Easy As Pi

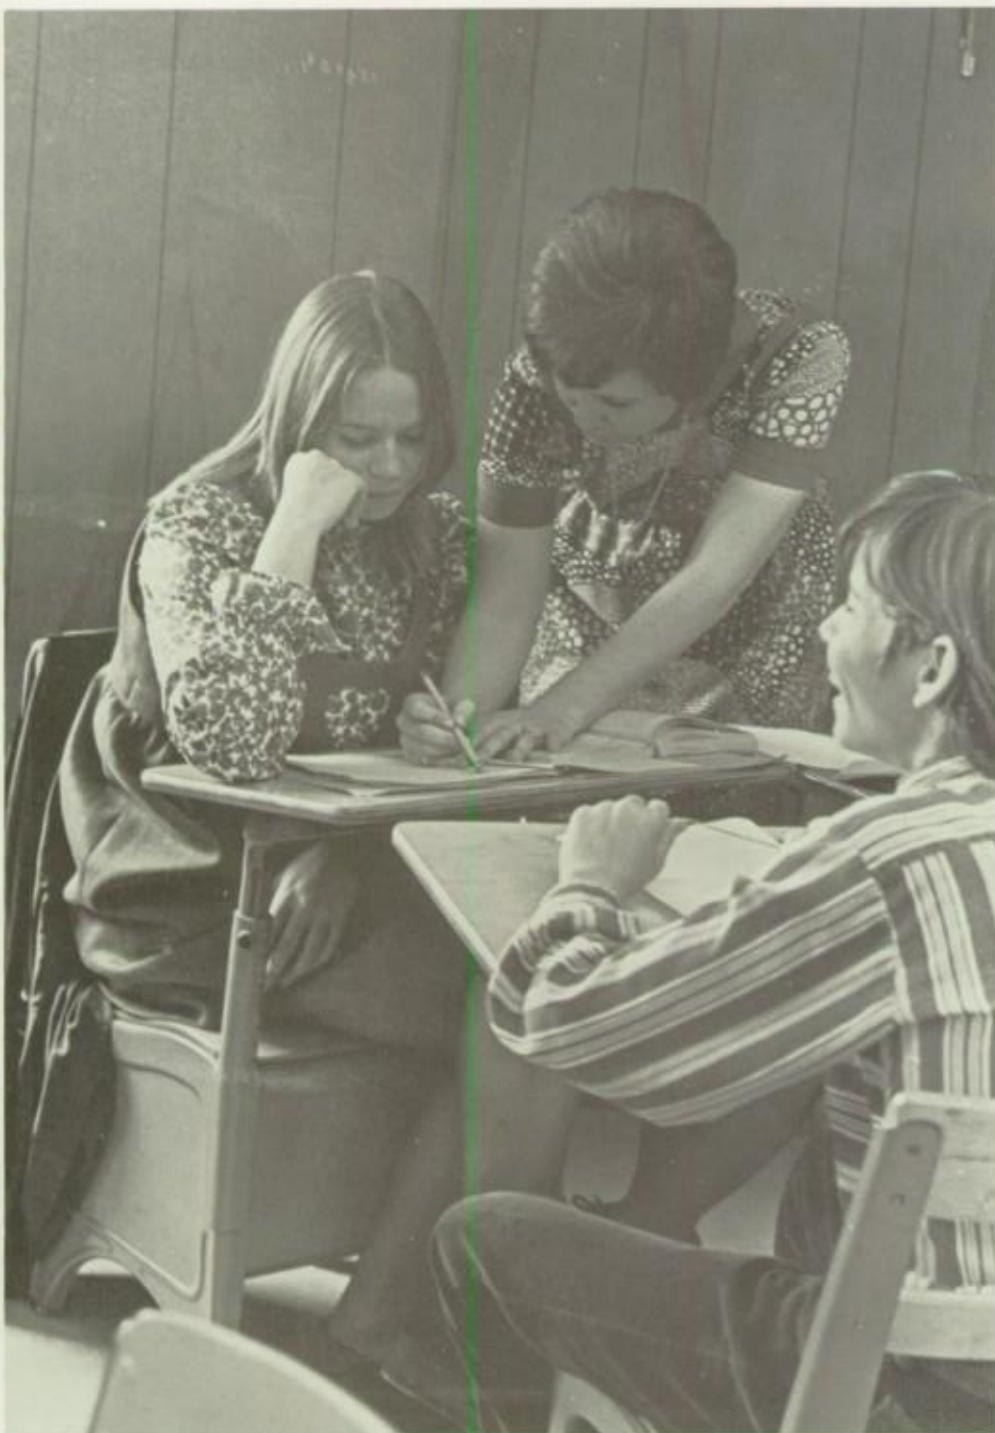

Searching to find the answers,
 Math students faced
 A barrage of problems
 Armed with compasses,
 Slide rules, and determination.
 The basic courses of Algebra and geometry
 Gave way to
 The more advanced subjects
 Of Trigonometry, Elementary Analysis,
 And Calculus.
 Related math students searched
 The newspaper daily
 Looking for applications
 Of their newly acquired knowledge.
 Toothpicks and gumdrops were Transformed into
 Spheres and polyhedrals
 To give geometry students a
 Better understanding of form.
 Mathematics provided
 A useful basis for other areas
 Of importance.

Mr. J. Stones explains set notations to his Elementary Analysis class.

Seniors Leigh Ann Westfall and Curtis Thornton discuss a difficult problem in Elementary Analysis.

Mrs. W. Smith aids junior Becki Moore in solving a geometry problem, while junior Ray Yarbrough looks on.

Junior Janell Faldet does a classwork assignment in Algebra II.

Miss P. Luther explains the programming of a computer to her class.

Mechanical Brains

Viewing the computer
As a practical form of problem solving,
Computer math students learned of its Vast usefulness in the worlds
Of math and science.
Starting with the Basic
And Fortran computer languages,
They moved on to flow charts,
And finally, they learned how
To program
The computer itself.
Emphasis was placed
On the computer as
The problem solving method
Of the future.

Mrs. H. McClure aids senior Jan Okrie in typing up her assignment.

Busy Bodies

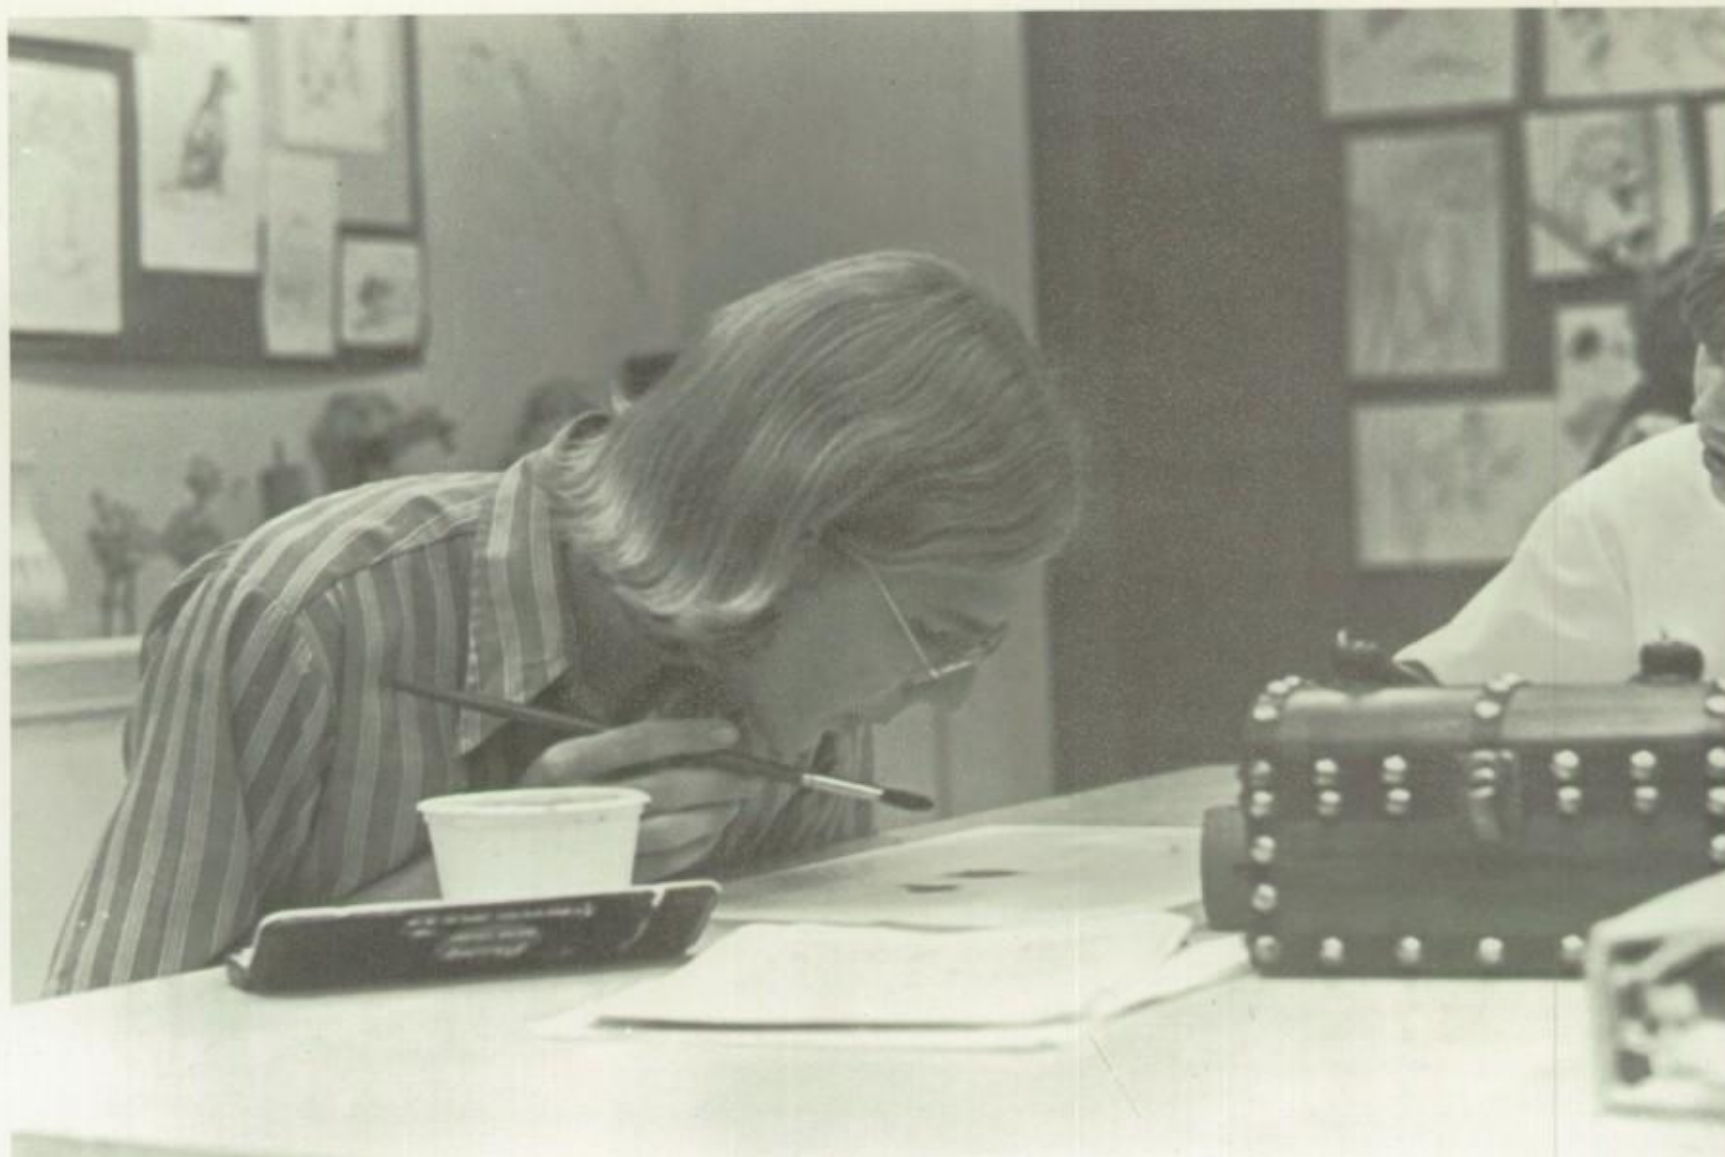

Making a start toward
The future,
Business students strove to Master the finer points
Of office instruction.
Typing students worked
To improve their speed
And accuracy,
While Bookkeeping, Shorthand,
And Clerical Practice students
Learned the basics of Office routine.
Keeping records of financial
And business documents
Was excellent practice in Gaining knowledge of
The duties and responsibilities
Of the business world.

Senior Judy Boudreau listens attentively to lecture notes in Bookkeeping.

Juniors Becky Bell and Chris Smith concentrate on their interpretive paintings.

Creativity on Canvas

The smell of paint,
A clutter of brushes, and
An atmosphere of creativity
Characterized the art classes.
Along with acquiring the Fundamentals of design,
Color, and composition,
Art students produced
Original creations using
A wide variety of materials.
They competed for prizes
In various decorating contests
Sponsored by local department stores
And entered their work for judging
In the annual Spring Art Show.
The flexible art program gave
Students the freedom to diversify
And develop their talents
To the fullest.

Sara Bell, senior, makes an enlarged copy of a contour drawing.

The Now Sounds

Combining skill and diligence
With long hours of practice,
Students found fulfillment
In many facets of music.
The training and cadet bands
Learned a variety of musical pieces
And performed them for a rating
At U.I.L. spring contest.
The Girls' and Mixed Choirs
Worked on music ranging from Religious pieces to popular songs
And performed in the annual Christmas and spring concerts.
For those who wanted
A deeper understanding of music,
Music theory classes gave them
The opportunity to grow familiar
With the works of great composers
And to compose music themselves.
The goal of all
Was to derive a
Greater appreciation of
And more satisfaction from
All musical forms.

Alan Zimmerman, senior, listens to a correction played by Miss B. Corkins.

Seniors Irene Guenther and Terry Lewis compose their own short pieces in Music Theory.

Eddie Held, Craig Harker and Tommy Strunk warm up on their alto saxophones.

Homeward Bound

For those who wished to learn
The practical skills necessary
To run a household,
Homemaking was the answer.
In addition to learning the basics
Of cooking and sewing, the finer points
Of decorating and entertaining
Were emphasized.
Guest lecturers spoke
On a variety of subjects
Ranging from etiquette to marriage.
Courses in Home and Family Living
Provided a deeper insight into
The problems and rewards
Of being a homemaker.

Plenty of Exercise

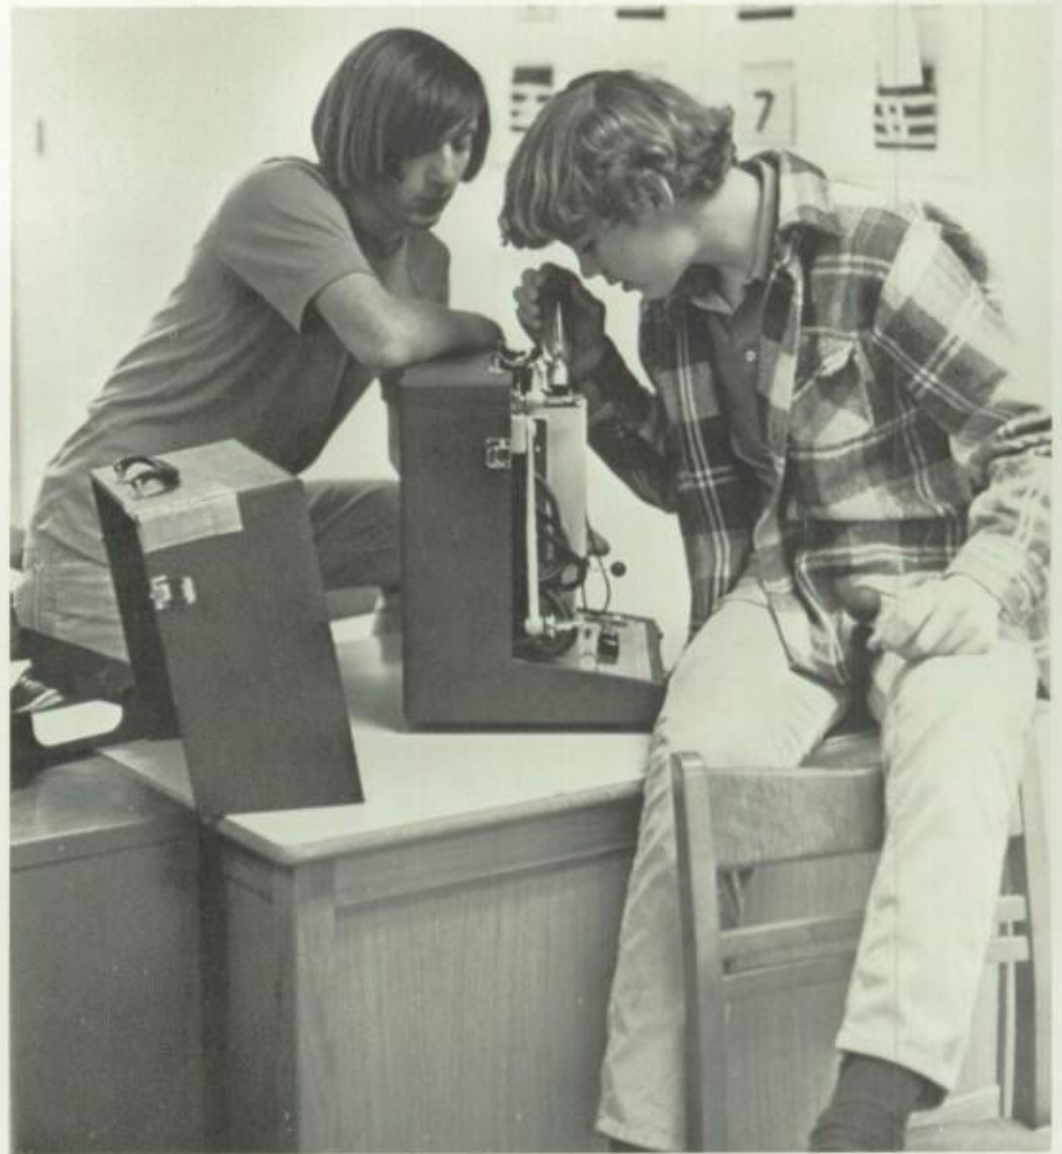

With concentration and determination
 They strained their bodies
 To achieve
 An ever improving performance.
 Physical Education gave students
 A chance to learn
 Coordination through exercises,
 And agility
 In sports ranging from Football to golf.
 The coaches and P.E. teachers
 Stressed physical development
 In conjunction with learning
 Good sportsmanship.

Visual Volunteers

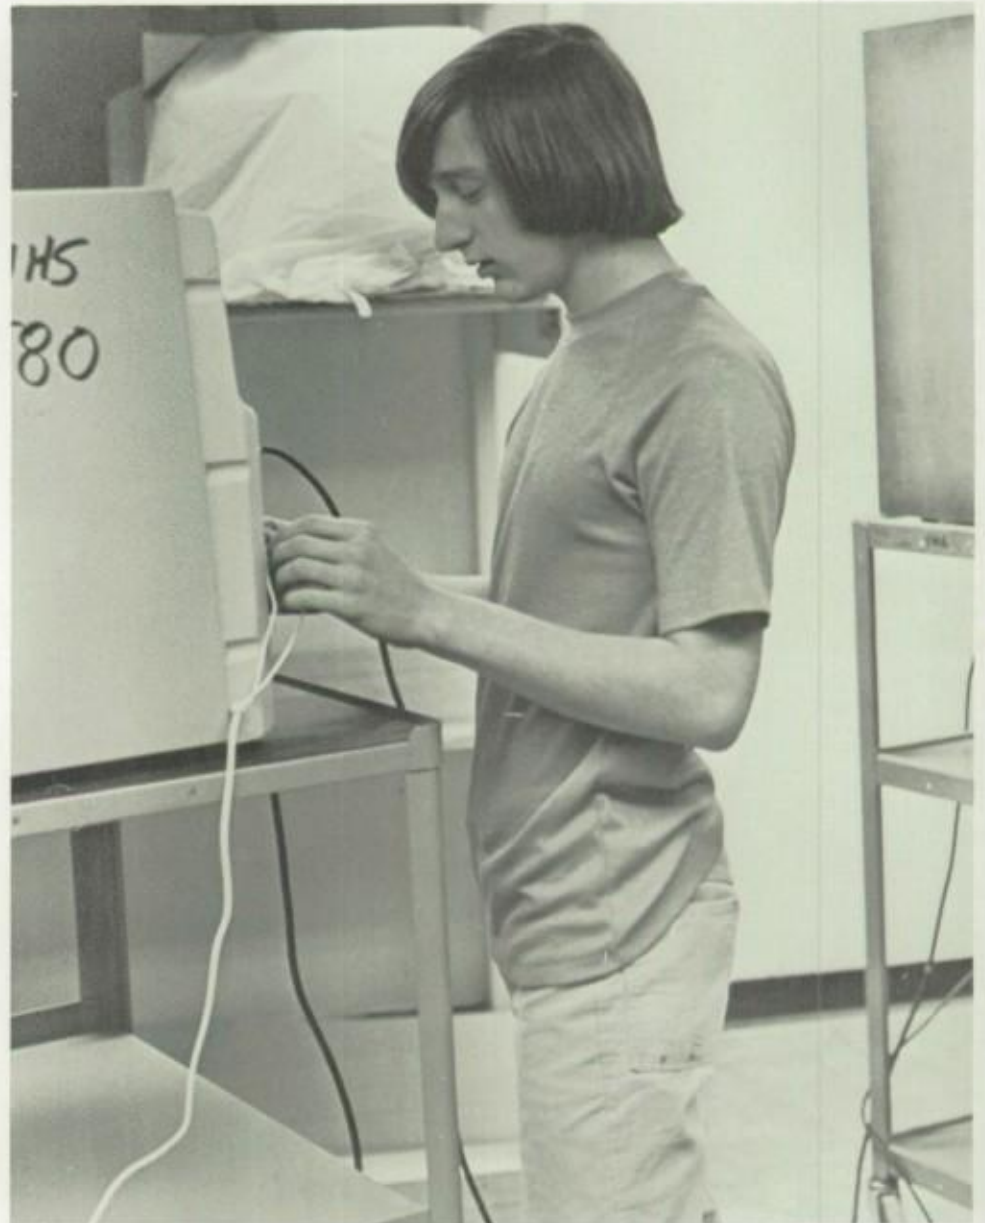

Devoting their time
In service to others,
Visual Aids volunteers
Delivered televisions, projectors,
And record players to
Their respective destinations
To aid in visual education.
Their work extended
Into the realm
Of understanding and Tinkering with
The finer mechanisms
Of the visual aid machines.

Bill Robinson, sophomore, prepares to replace light bulb in a projector.

Ricky Cucina, senior, looks for an oil leak on a teacher's car.

John Poole, junior, practices tuning up the engine of a truck.

Grease Monkeys

Combining practical knowledge
 With skill and precision,
 They concentrated on learning
 The internal mysteries
 Of the engine.
 Students studied the different parts,
 And then the structure and function
 Of the automobile.
 For the experience they were allowed
 To work
 On teachers' cars.
 Films, diagrams, and
 The supervision of Experienced teachers all aided
 In the fundamentals
 Of Auto Mechanics.

Talking Shop

With skill and patience
They transformed
Ideas into workable plans,
And then into useful objects
Of metal and wood.
Guided by experienced teachers,
Students in Industrial Arts classes
Concentrated on gaining knowledge
In basic industrial processes,
And had a chance to Compare their work in the Annual Industrial Arts Fair.
Drafting students found a
Challenge in transferring
Intangible ideas into clear
Understandable structures
On paper.

Bob Arthur, freshman, lends a helping hand on the jig saw to freshman James Cook.

Jimmy Grimes, freshman, marks the cutting line before sawing.

With concentration and care, Johnny Besier, freshman, cuts a length of wire to use on his project.

Doug Curry, sophomore, seeks help on a drafting problem from senior Pam Briede.

Sharpening his pencil to a finer point, senior Pat Wagner prepares to make a technical drawing.

organizations

JIM PIRTLE
LAURA HOULGRAVE

Organizations, this is where the winners were.
Presenting students with an opportunity to Develop areas of special interest,
Clubs expanded the school from just classrooms
To a well-rounded educational institution.
Thirty-seven organizations covered almost every Area of interest any student at Spring Woods had.
Creativity, communication, service, and support
Were the ideals fostered by the clubs,
While some stressed preparation for the future.
The Ecology Club, newly founded, reflected
Students' concern for the environment as
It carried out many beneficial projects.
The Soccer team, in its second year,
Vying for acceptance as a major sport
Won the city championship.
Capturing awards at summer camps, U.I.L. contests,
State conventions, or area tournaments,
All organizations represented the school well.
The band, Chorale, and Orchestra participated
Both as complete ensembles and as soloists,
Either way winning many trophies and medals.
Thespians and NFL competed in many area and
State tournaments, capturing sweepstakes twice.
Most other clubs were concerned with professional
Goals or promoting spirit for the various teams.
Every organization had a specific domain which Benefited students' development
And served the school as well.

Meet the Press

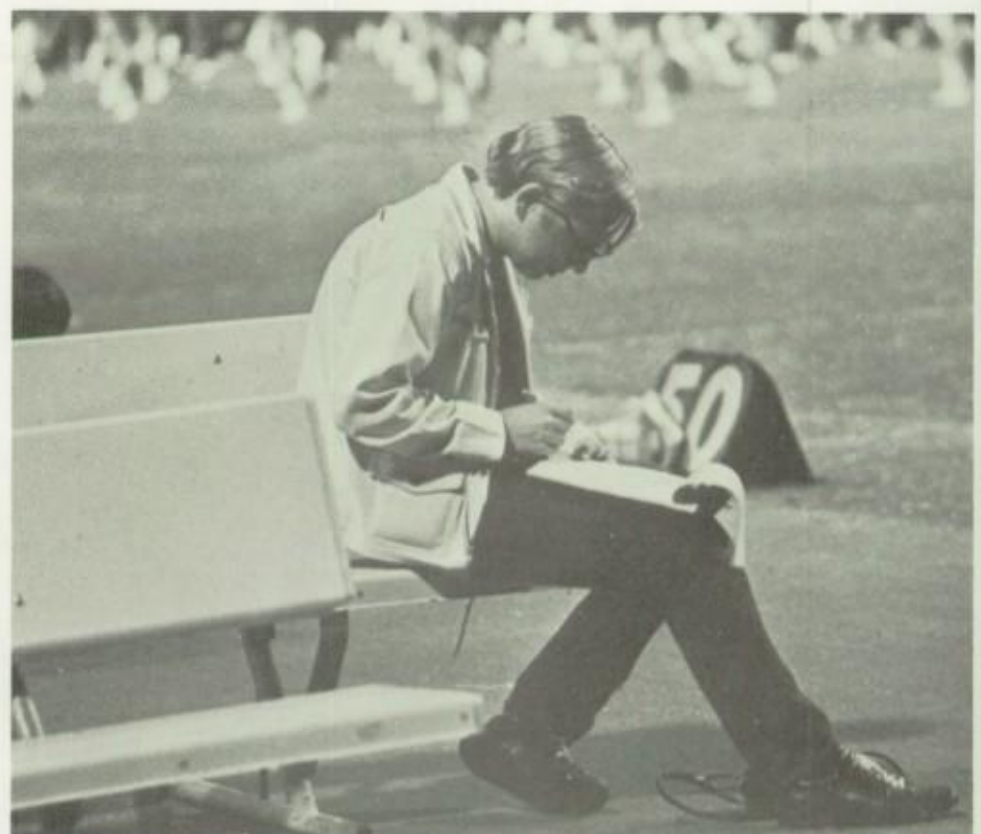

Backed by a year of journalism,
The regit staff produced
Fifteen issues of objective reporting
On the events and topics
Which concerned the student body.
Reports of student activities
And accomplishments
Comprised a large portion
Of each bi-weekly issue.
Editorials allowed students
A chance to voice
Their opinions on current topics.
Frequent entries by interested readers
And special interest articles
Brought informative views
On national and local topics.
U.I.L. competition,
Texas High School Press Association,
And Gulf Coast Area contests
Placed the regit and its staff
High in state competition.
Periodical publication of the regit
Kept the readers

Blood, Sweat, and Tears

The Safari Staff began their year
At a week-long journalism workshop
At A&M in July.
The staff received four first and
One third place awards in yearbook
Competition, a new record.
Yearbook sales were down this year
Due partially to a lack of
Senior homerooms.
Sales were reopened a week before
Christmas to make up this lose.
The staff was allowed one period
Each day to capture an entire Year on paper.
Both the mechanical and creative
Resources of the staff were tapped
Time after time, as after school work
Sessions lengthened and lengthened.
Each of the three deadlines was Met with much cajolery and many Frenzied nerves.
Finally, May brought the completion
Of the 1972 Safari, and a well earned
Sense of accomplishment.

sports

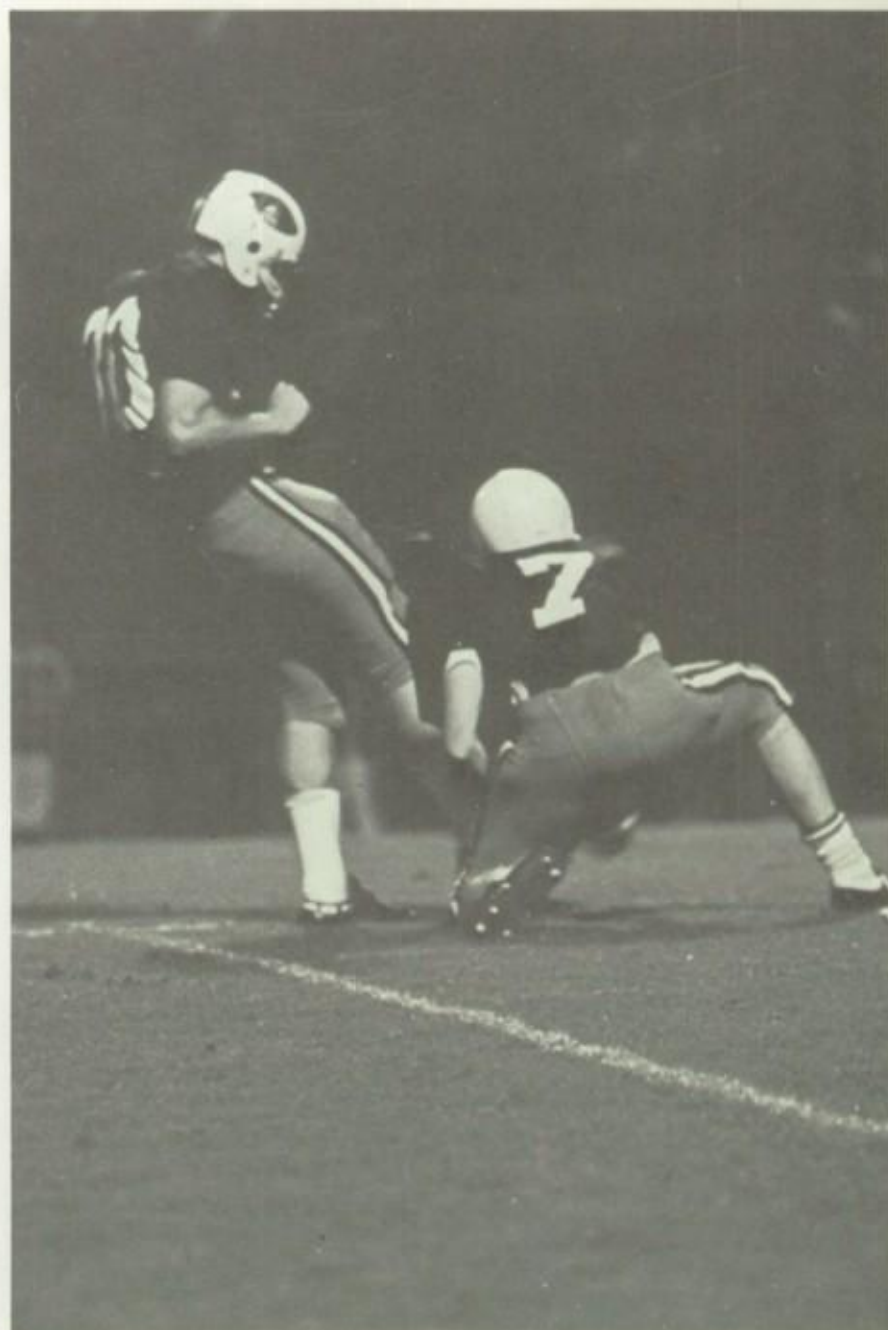

CHRIS POLE

The most noted winners were the athletes.
 Their sports satisfied their desires
 To compete while providing
 An outlet for spectators' enthusiasm.
 Picked to go to state,
 The Tiger football team didn't quite make it that far,
 But still ended a good season
 By defeating their old rivals,
 The Spring Branch Bears: 12-7.
 The Tiger Cagers' season highlight came
 When they played Galena Park in
 An exhibition game in Hofheinz Pavilion.
 New records were set in track,
 And the girls' volleyball team
 Reached new heights due to a superior senior team.
 Daryl Gralka, three years state winner in tennis,
 Was disqualified due to a UIL technical ruling. She went
 On to complete her high school career with
 Innumerable trophies awards, and honors,
 Including a March trip to Australia for exhibitions.
 Those with the greatest ability and
 Most determination gained the glory.
 Team sports gave individuals
 A sense of belonging and personal achievement.
 A certain dedication was required
 Of all who made the various teams.
 They were as good as they tried to be.
 This great devotion channelled Spring Woods to Outstanding accomplishments and great victories.

SW Ties Reagan In Season Opener

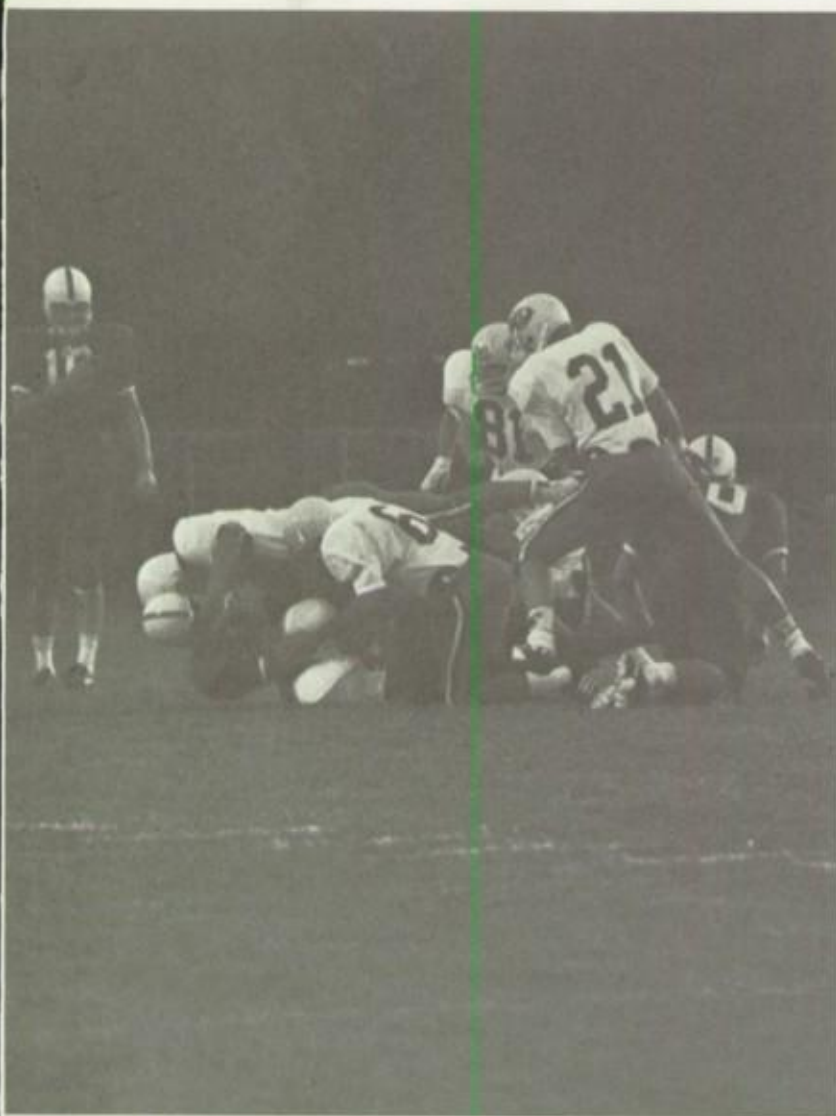

Spring Woods
Surprised everyone,
Especially Austin Reagan,
When they tied 7-7 with
Last year's state champs.
In a fumble-riddled game,
The Tigers scored first
When Butch Lamb
Ran across for the only
Tiger touchdown.
Rusty Parrot kicked
The extra point to put
The Tigers ahead 7-0.
The Tiger defense
Then took over
And held Reagan scoreless
For the first half.
Late in the third quarter
Reagan tied the Tigers
On a fumble recovery.
The game ended unresolved
Despite Hurricane Fern.

Rusty Parrott, senior, kicks the seventh point.

Scrambling Butch Lamb, senior, goes over for a T.D.

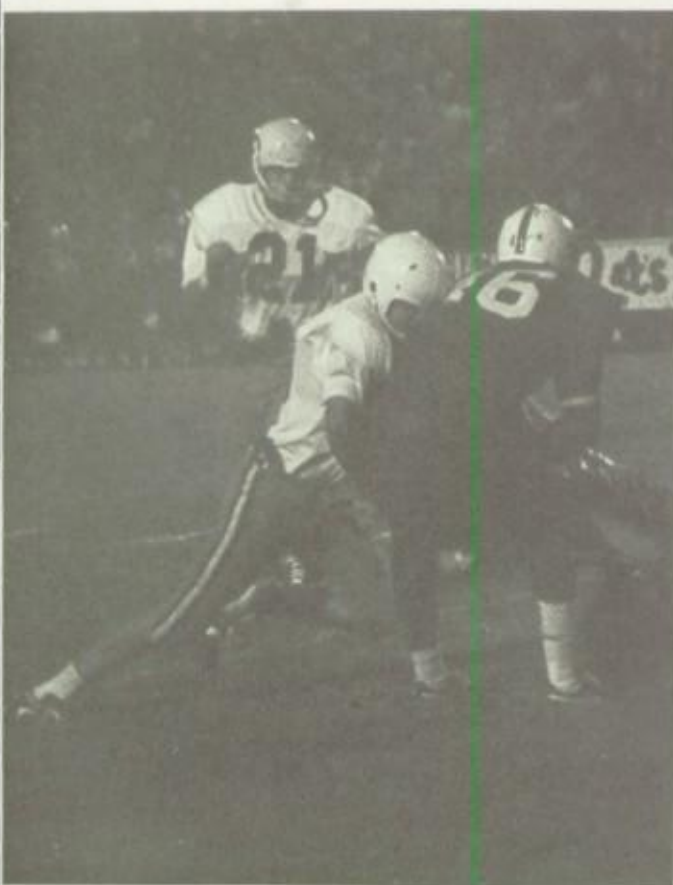

Seniors Gary Schubert, Tony Meyers, and Bobby Reed pile on an Exporter.

Tigers Roll Past Exporters

Ken Ahrens, sophomore quarterback,
 Scored two touchdowns
 To lead Spring Woods to a
 21-0 victory over Brazosport.
 Only two minutes into the game,
 The Tigers recovered
 A fumble and Ahrens
 Scored his first touchdown.
 In the second quarter,
 Butch Lamb set up
 A second T.D. and
 The two-point conversion.
 Charlie Wilcox scored
 After the half
 To wrap up the game
 For the Tigers.
 The mighty Tiger defense held
 Fast, costing the
 Exporters four fumbles.

Hard-hitting senior, David Petty recovers a fumble.

SW Breaks GP Tradition

It was all defense
As Spring Woods squeezed by
Galena Park for the first time 7-6.
There were no scores in the
First half, but
The Tigers came alive
In the third quarter
And scored on a 15-yard pass
That Ken Ahrens completed to Barry Hill.
Rusty Parrott's conversion kick
Made the difference in the game.
The Yellow Jackets scored
At the end of the fourth
Quarter, but they gambled
On a two-point
Conversion pass
And the tough Tiger defense
Stopped them cold.

Tigers Open District Against C-F Bobcats

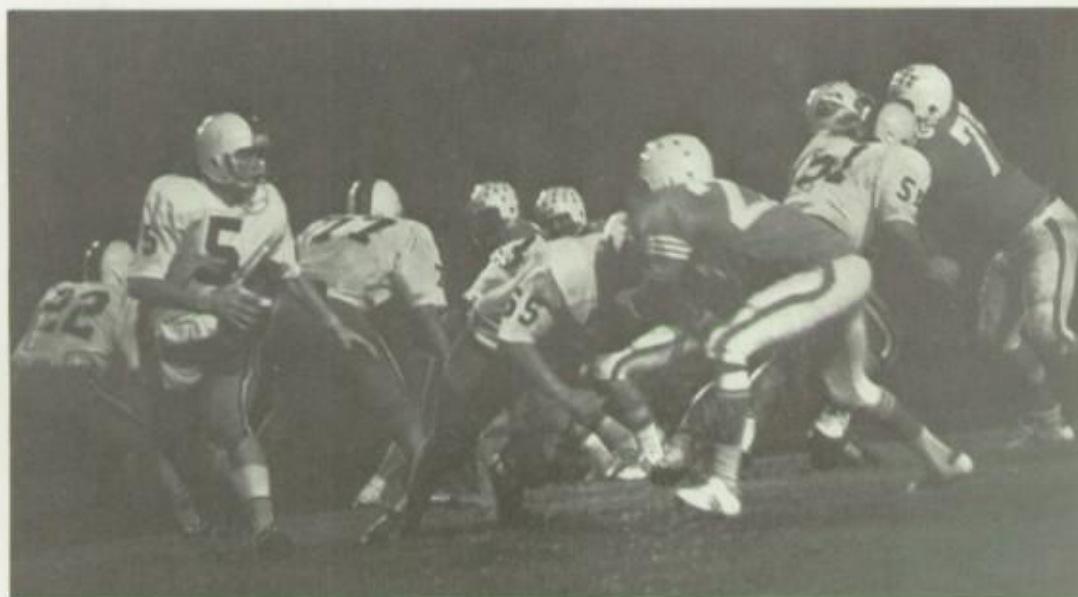

Behind the powerful running of
Butch Lamb and Charlie Wilcox
The Tigers eased Cy-Fair, 17-15.
The Bobcats took an early lead
But the Tigers came back
When David Petty tackled
A Cy-Fair kicker, for a two-point safety.
Halfback Barry Hill scored before the half
To put the Tigers ahead.
S.W. went for the two-point conversion
To make it 10-7.
In the third quarter Charlie Wilcox
Dove over for the score.
Rusty Parrott's kick for the extra point
Made it 17-7.
The Bobcats come-back was stopped
Short by the stiff Tiger
Defense and the clock.

Sophomore, Joey Bevill pulls down a Bobcat as the Tiger defense piles on.

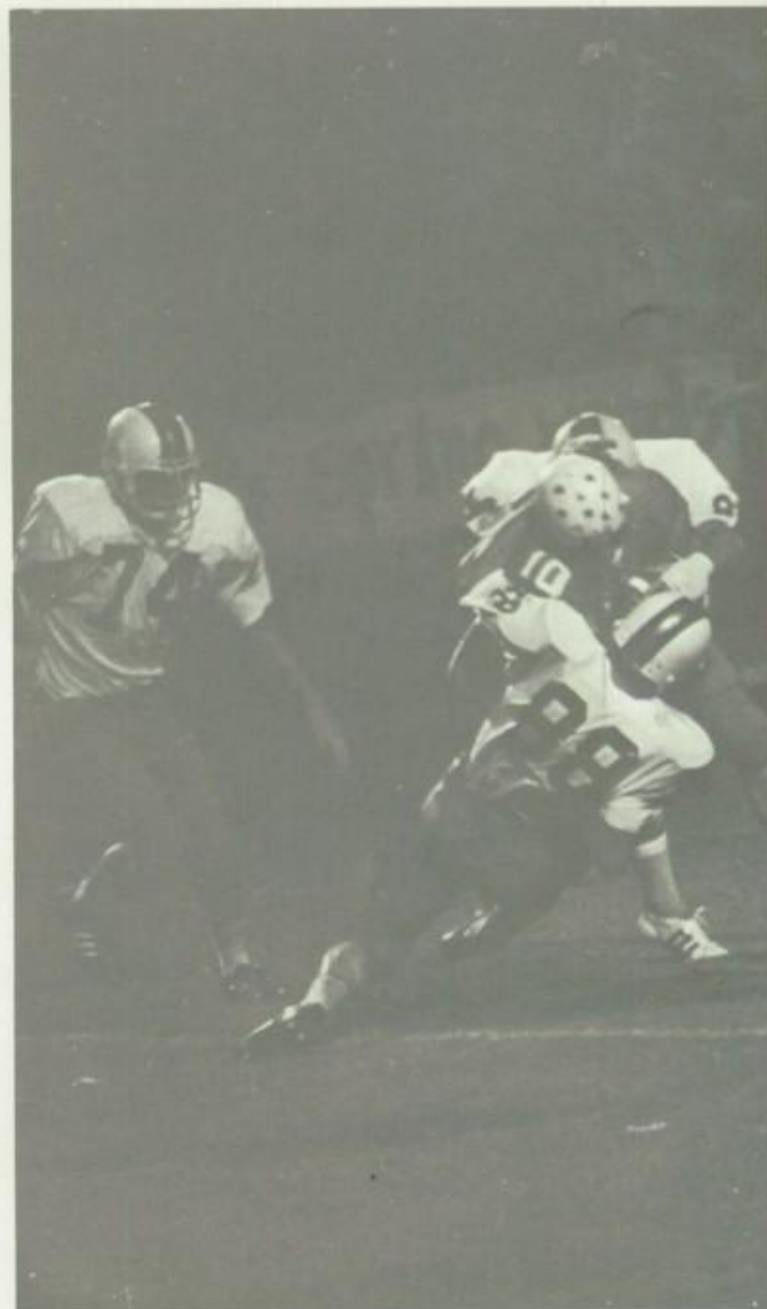

Upraised rusher, Laury Hussion, senior, tries for extra yardage.

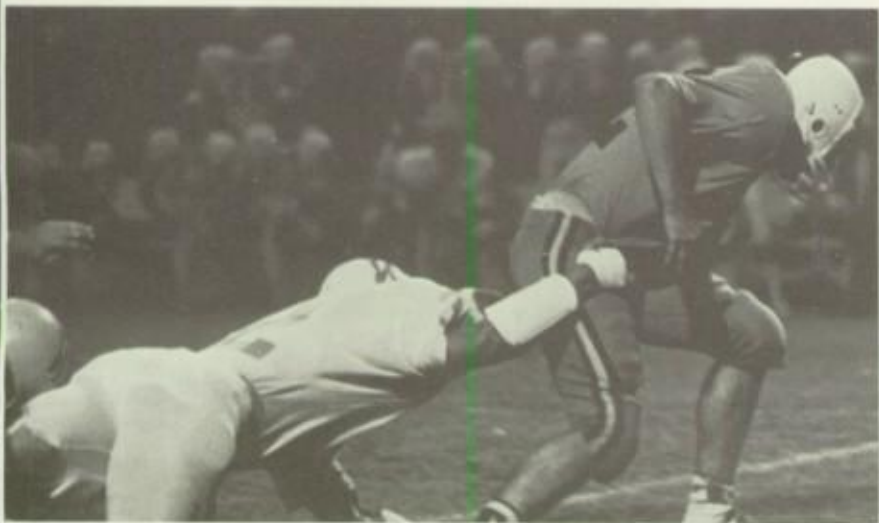

With good protection, senior quarterback, Marty Daugherty rolls out to pass.

First District Loss

Amid its own mistakes and
The absence of starting quarterback Ken Ahrens,
Spring Woods lost its first district game
To the Conroe Tigers 23-7.
Spring Woods lost three fumbles and was
Penalized 83 yards keeping them out of scoring range.
Barry Hill led the Spring Woods running attack
With 16 carries for 70 yards.
A two-yard run in the fourth quarter
By Charlie Wilcox was Spring Woods' only score.
The Spring Woods defense held strong, but could not
Battle Conroe's excellent field position.

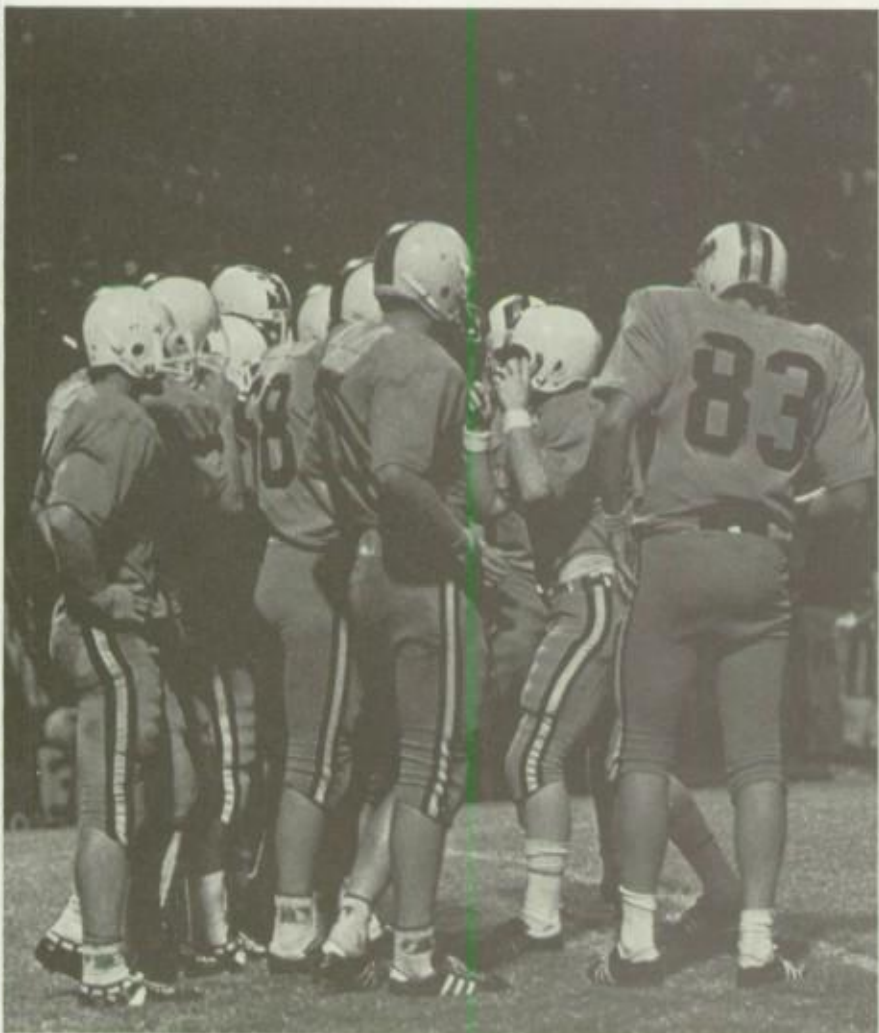

Hard-hitting seniors David Petty and Dennis Bradley stop a Conroe runner.

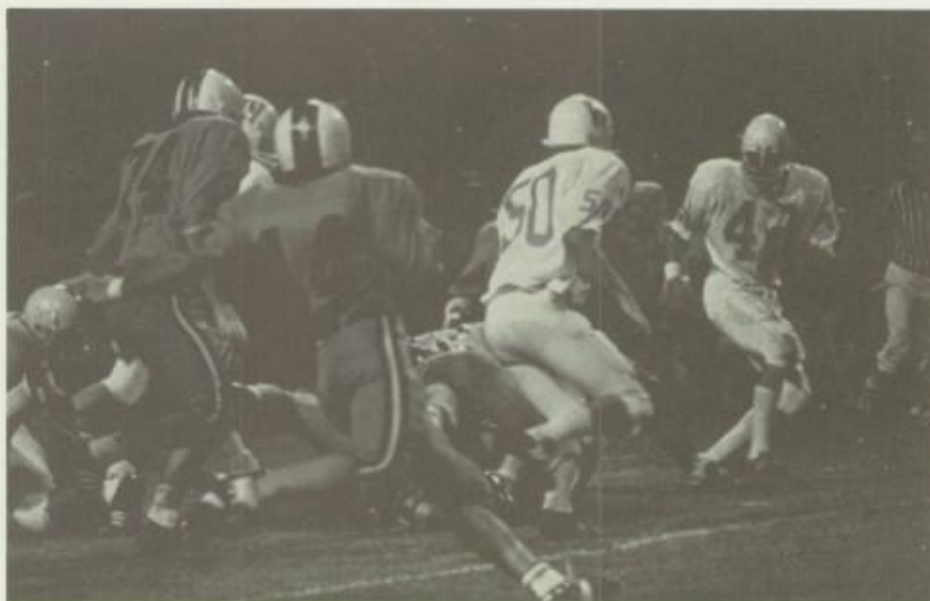

Butch Lamb, senior, pulls past Westchester.

District Champs Take Tigers 21-0

Four fumbles and two interceptions
Gave Westchester their victory
Over Spring Woods.
The Tiger defense could not get going —
Making only five first downs.
The fast-moving Wildcat defense
Held the Tiger offense to only 99 yards.
The Tiger's big moment came in the Fourth quarter when Spring Woods blocked
Westchester's punt and recovered
In the end zone.
An excess of Tigers on the field
Led to a 15-yard personal foul penalty
And nullified the touchdown.
Added to that was another
Wildcat touchdown for the Final defeat of 21-0.

Marty Daugherty, senior, plans offensive action.

An end sweep by senior Barry Hill gains five yards.

Senior Tommie Boni, tips the ball into the hands of a Westchester defender.

Parrot Kicks for Tie

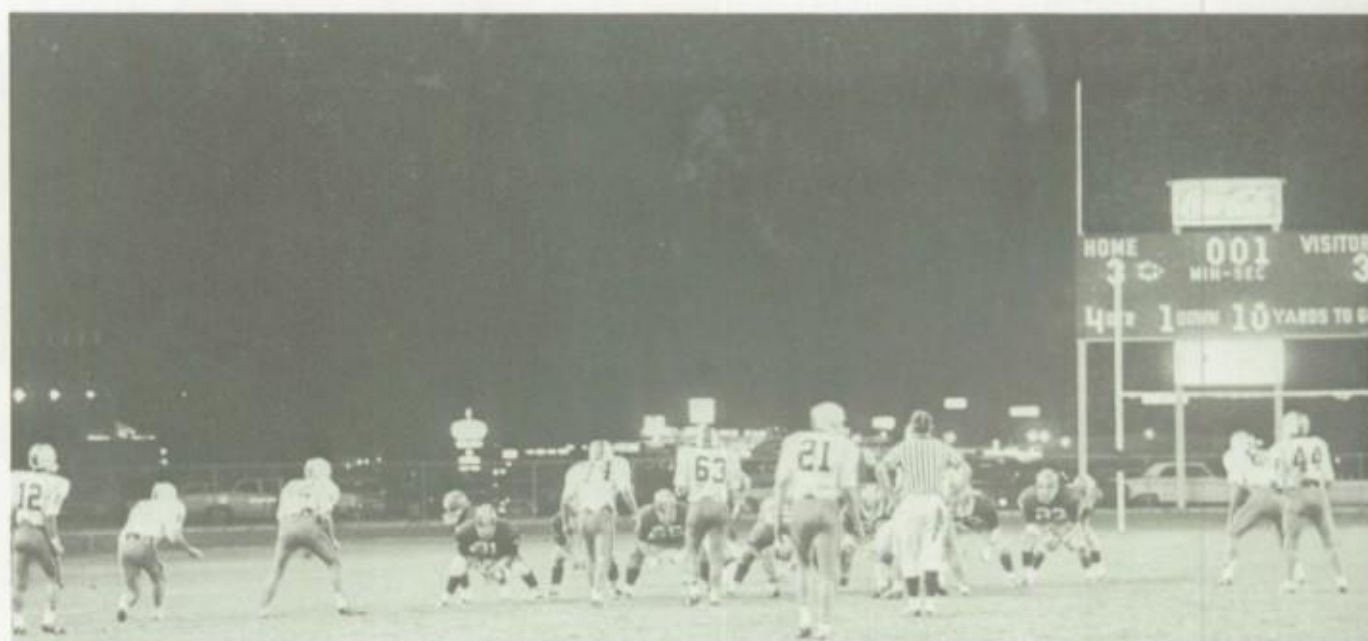

The Spring Woods offense
Fought its way to a 3-3 tie
With the MacArthur Generals.
The Generals scored first
On a 36-yard field goal.
The Tiger defense then tightened up
And kept the Generals scoreless
For the rest of the game.
With five minutes left in the
First quarter Rusty Parrott kicked
A 38-yard field goal to tie up the game.
Tony Meyer and David Petty
Led the Tiger defense
In their hold against MacArthur.

Scrambling Ken Ahrens, sophomore, passes to senior Barry Hill.

Ken Ahrens, sophomore, runs a quarterback option.

Senior Charlie Wilcox, slips through the Aldine defenders.

Ponies Edge Tigers

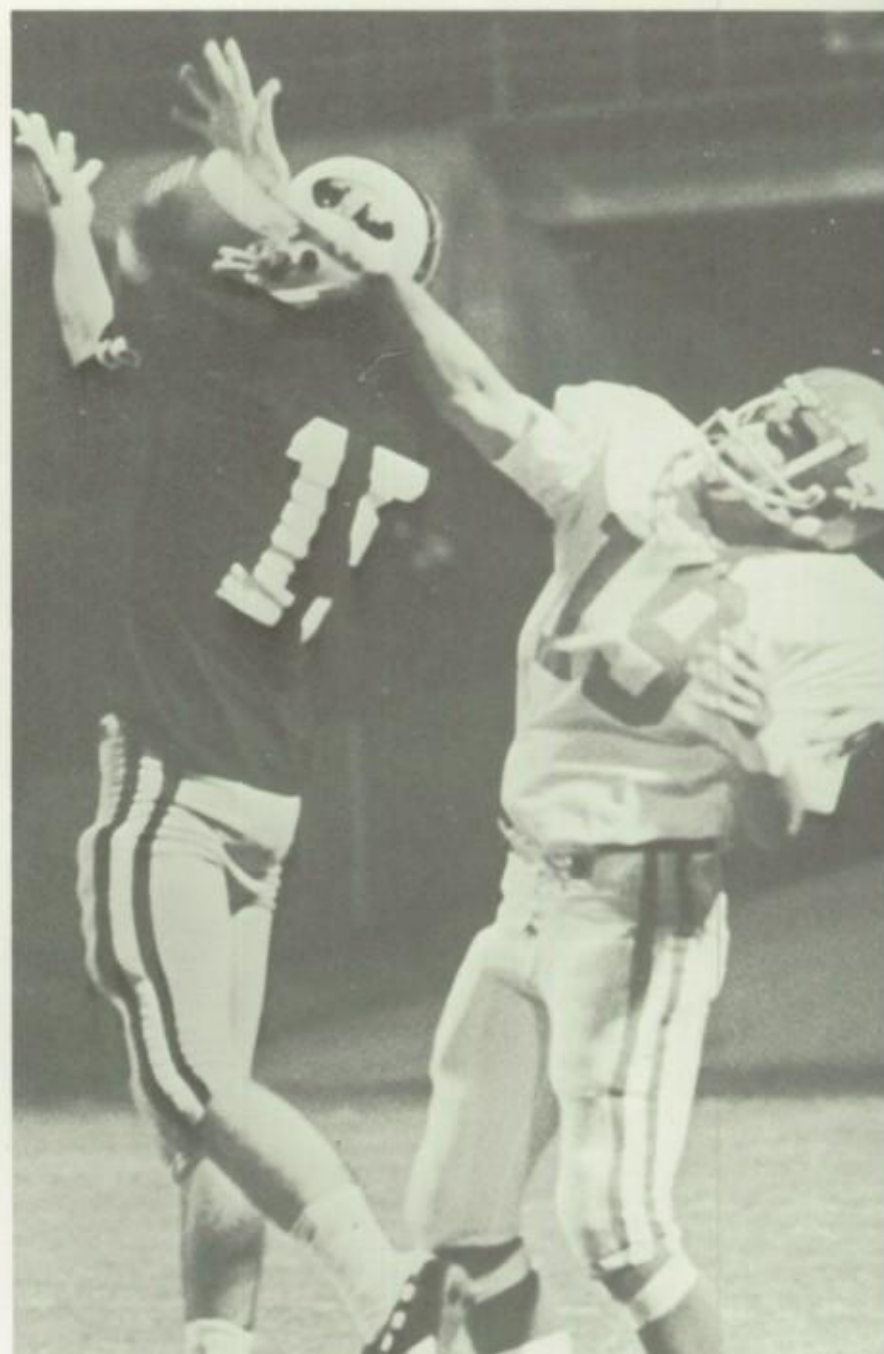

Struggling to make good, the Tigers
Dropped their third district
Game to the Aldine Mustangs 3-0.
The game was evenly matched until
The third quarter when the Mustangs
Drove to the Spring Woods 24
And made a field goal.
The Tiger offense could not
Get moving and gained a
Net total of only 38 yards, nine
Rushing and 29 passing.
Defensively the Tigers held strong
Going Aldine to only
Three penetrations in the game.

Tigers Corral Mustangs

Back to their winning ways
 The Tigers eased by Memorial 7-6.
 Three minutes into the game,
 The Tigers jumped out to a 7-0 lead
 On a five-yard toss from quarterback
 James Kelly to tight end Steve Forsythe.
 Led by Tony Meyer and Bobby Reid, the Tiger defense did not give up any penetrations
 Until the fourth quarter
 When Memorial scored on a six-yard pass.
 With four minutes left to go in the game,
 The tough Tiger defense got to the Memorial kicking team and
 They missed the extra point to Give the Tigers their 7-6 victory.

Leading the Tigers to victory, senior quarterback James Kelly, unloads a pass.

Doug Frazee and Bennett Foster, seniors, team up and tackle a Branch runner.

Keeping the Tigers ahead of Spring Branch, senior Rusty Parrott kicks a field goal.

Tigers Break Branch

Continuing their winning ways,
The Spring Woods Tigers rolled by
The Spring Branch Bears 12-7.
Enthusiasm was everywhere for the
Most important game of the season
For both teams.

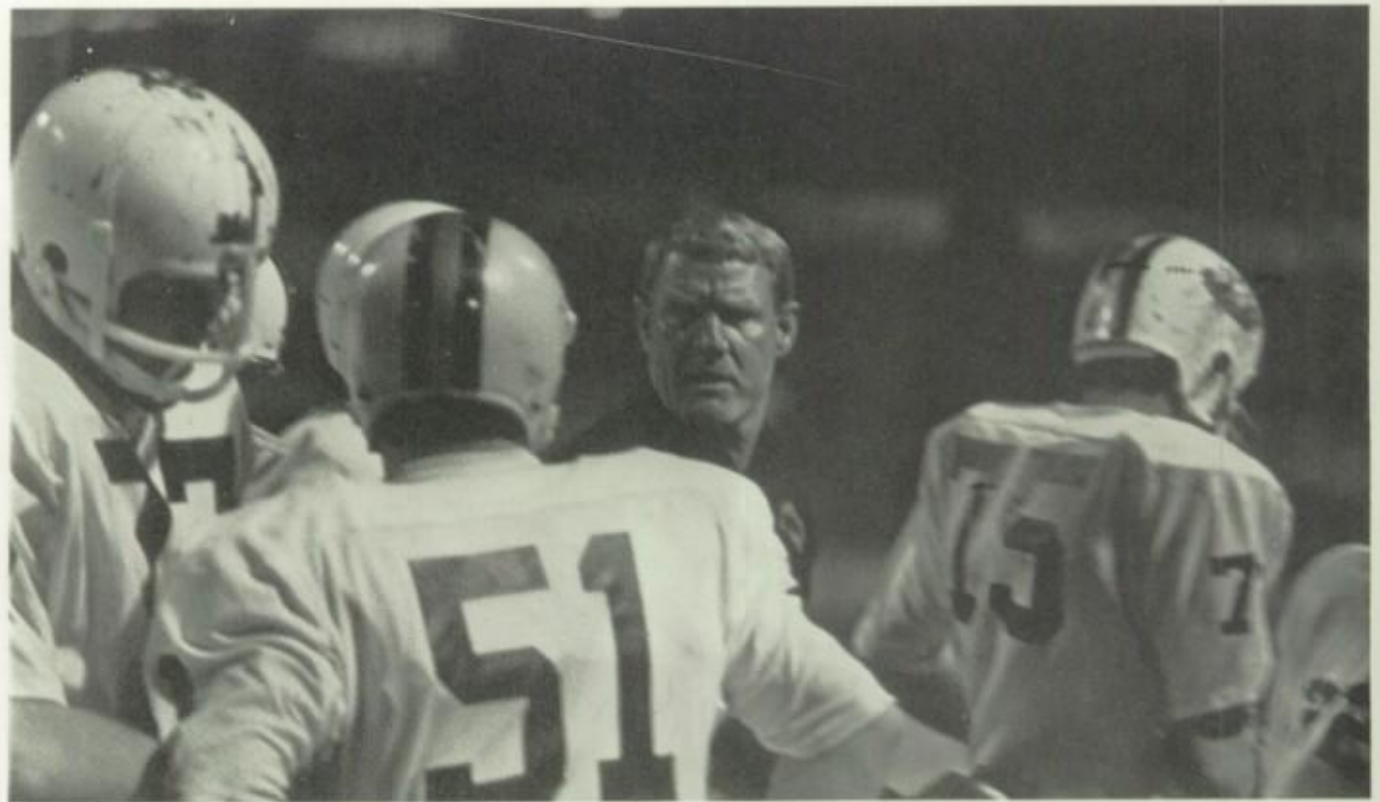

The Tigers took the lead on a 30-yard
Field goal only one second before the End of the half. Returning to the field,
The Tigers made it 10-0 on 46-yard run
By halfback Butch Lamb.

Spring Branch came back and scored on a
Two-yard run in the third quarter.

In the final period the Tigers pushed
The Bears to their own five-yard line.

Tony Meyer broke through the Bear offense
And caught the Branch quarterback
For the two point safety
Seconds before the gun.

It was an exciting and triumphant end
To an unfulfilled season.

Starting Fresh

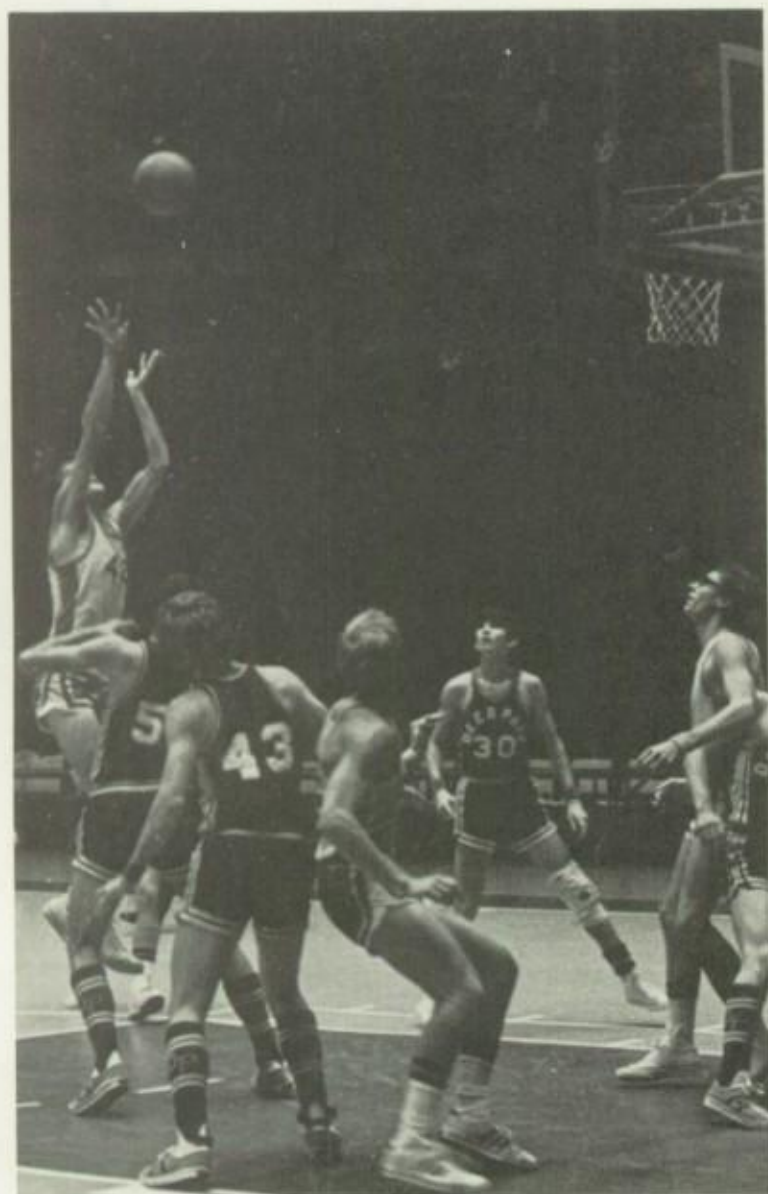

Ending the season with a combined Record of 10-5-0, the freshman 'A' and 'B' teams started their Football years by putting 198 points on the scoreboard. The defense held strong As they kept opposing teams To only 90 points. With 79 players on the team Coaches Marriana and Bronson's only Drawback was the vastness of the team.

Cagers Have Shaky Pre-District Start

Winning only against Bellaire
And Vidor in their
First nine starts,
The Tiger cagers had a rough
Start in pre-district play.
The only bright spot was Playing at Hoffeinz Pavillion
And even that was marred
As the Tigers lost to Deer Park 67-55.
The lack of aggressiveness
And the inexperience of the team
Caused the Tigers to end
The pre-district season
With a 7-13 record.

Tigers Drop Two

In the first district game
Of the season, the Spring Woods
Tigers fell to the Westchester
Wildcats 62-45.

With starting guard Jim Crowther
Out of action with a cracked
Shinbone, the Tigers could not Generate enough of an offense
To overcome the Wildcats.

Making only 23% of their attempts
For baskets, the Tigers spirit
Dropped and their defense faltered.
Back on their home court
To face the Memorial Mustangs
The Tigers lost their second
District game 60-49.

Shooting only 20% from the field,
The Tigers offense still showed signs
Of rejuvenating and coming to life.

JV Finishes 3rd

Having two of their starting players
Taken away at mid-season by the varsity,
The Tiger JV had a spectacular season
Despite such drawbacks.
An overall season record of 26-11
Was capitalized by a district record of 9-5.
Scoring over 800 points in
The district half of the season,
The JV beat every team once except
For the district champs Westchester.
With Wade Segfried and Tate Armstrong
Leading the offense, when the varsity
Was not using them,
The Tigers rolled their
Way to victory.

Qualifications for finals.
The anticipation of college
Or work lightened every week.
As the school year ended,
A little less time
Was given to studying
And more free time was spent
Reflecting on the past nine months.
With graduation,
The class dispersed for each
To follow his own future.

Julie Kaltenbach counts out carnations before distribution.

Seniors exercise their off-campus lunch privilege.

The class favorites are Kenny Elmgrin and Debbie Ault.

The Class Favorites are: Rudy Boland and Leta Tautenhaun.

Jr. Executives

Juniors while receiving Senior Rings,
 Planning the Snowball Dance
 As their means of collecting
 Money for the Junior Prom
 Brought on an inspiring feeling of the Senior year ahead.
 For most it was Algebra,
 A review of the Civil War, Billy Budd,
 Dissecting frogs, and
 Working endlessly to compile a
 Critical review.
 No longer the underclassmen,
 And not quite yet possessing
 The sensational feeling of Seniority.
 As the year progressed the
 Juniors grew older and a bit
 Closer to that upcoming final year.

"I heard everything in Texas was bigger, but this is ridiculous!" Trond Kanstaed.

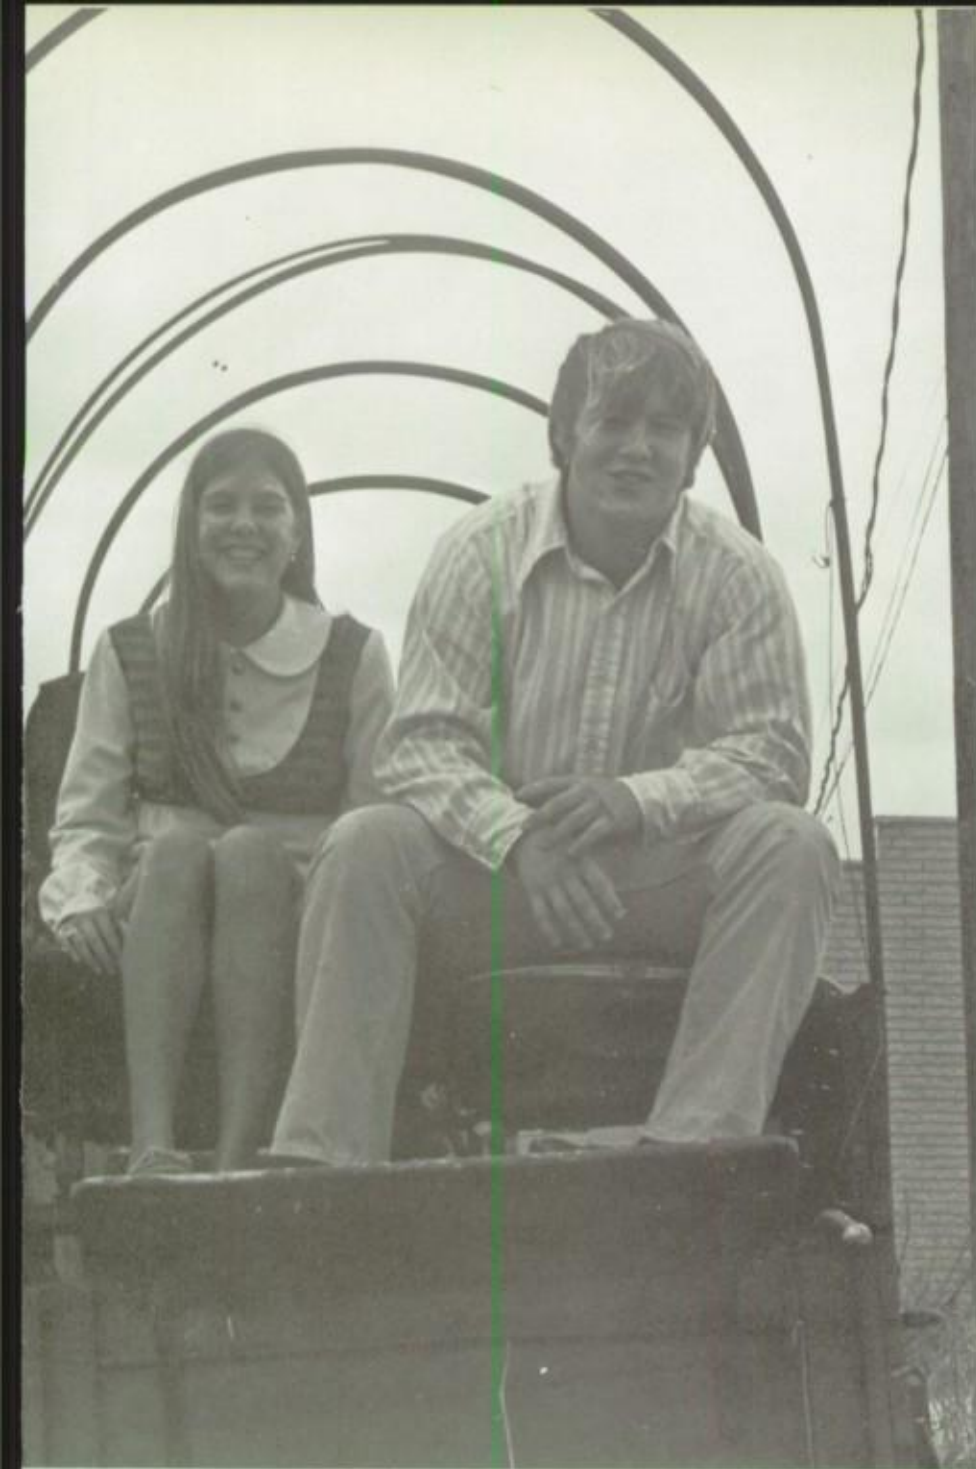

Sophomores express varied degrees of enthusiasm towards math.

The Class Officers are: Steve Brack, treasurer; Ken Ahrens, vice-president; Toby Miles, president and Mary Ann Frazier, secretary.

Class Favorites are: Terry Hill and Marty Meyers.

Ricky Ireland signs valentines before distribution.

Debbie Stockman, sophomore, struggles over geometry problem.

Sophomores '72

With one year gone
 And three to go,
 Sophomores used traditions and new ideas
 To develop into new characters.
 While learning to drive
 Was a new privilege.
 They drove love
 In the form of Valentines.
 For Sophomores the feeling was Neither the beginning of school
 Nor the time of ending.
 It was just an all around
 Busier schedule and
 A year of adventures for Sophomores in '72.

Freshmen: Brave New World

In the beginning,
Freshmen were introduced
To Spring Woods through
Simulated classes at orientation.
Opening week was confusing and
Frustrating with counselors,
Schedule changes, and
Long hikes between classes.
With the election of Class officers and representatives,
The pieces began to fit.
And they also began to see the
Many-sided faces of senior high life.
They continued the tradition
and sponsored the Valentine's Dance.
Some were heard to groan at four
Years of hard work to come but
All had aspirations of seniority
And looked forward to being
Seniors '75.

Susan Parks works on World History research.

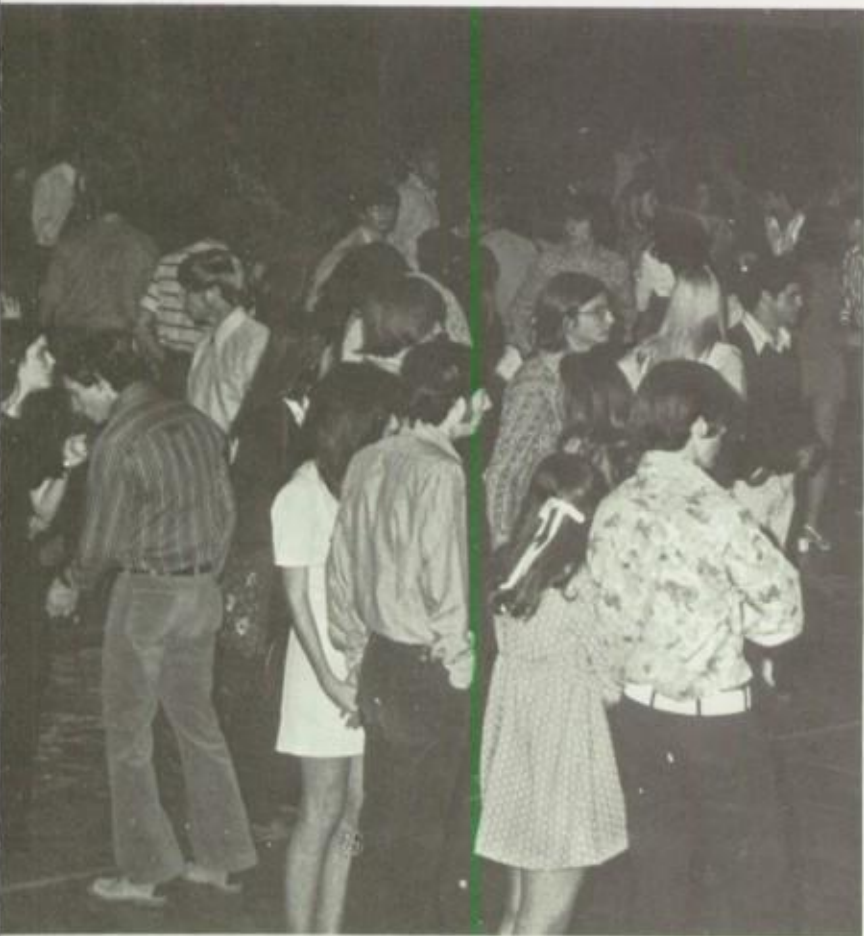

Freshmen football team takes on Cyfair Bobcats.

The Class Favorites are: Jill Reaves and Kenneth Harvey.

The Class Officers are: Marti Hunter, treasurer; Scott Logan, president; Sarah Scheumach, secretary; and Jim Forsythe, vice-president.

Students boogey to the sound of Spencer at the freshmen Valentine Dance.

Frank Frosh, works on project in metal shop.

Classroom Shadows

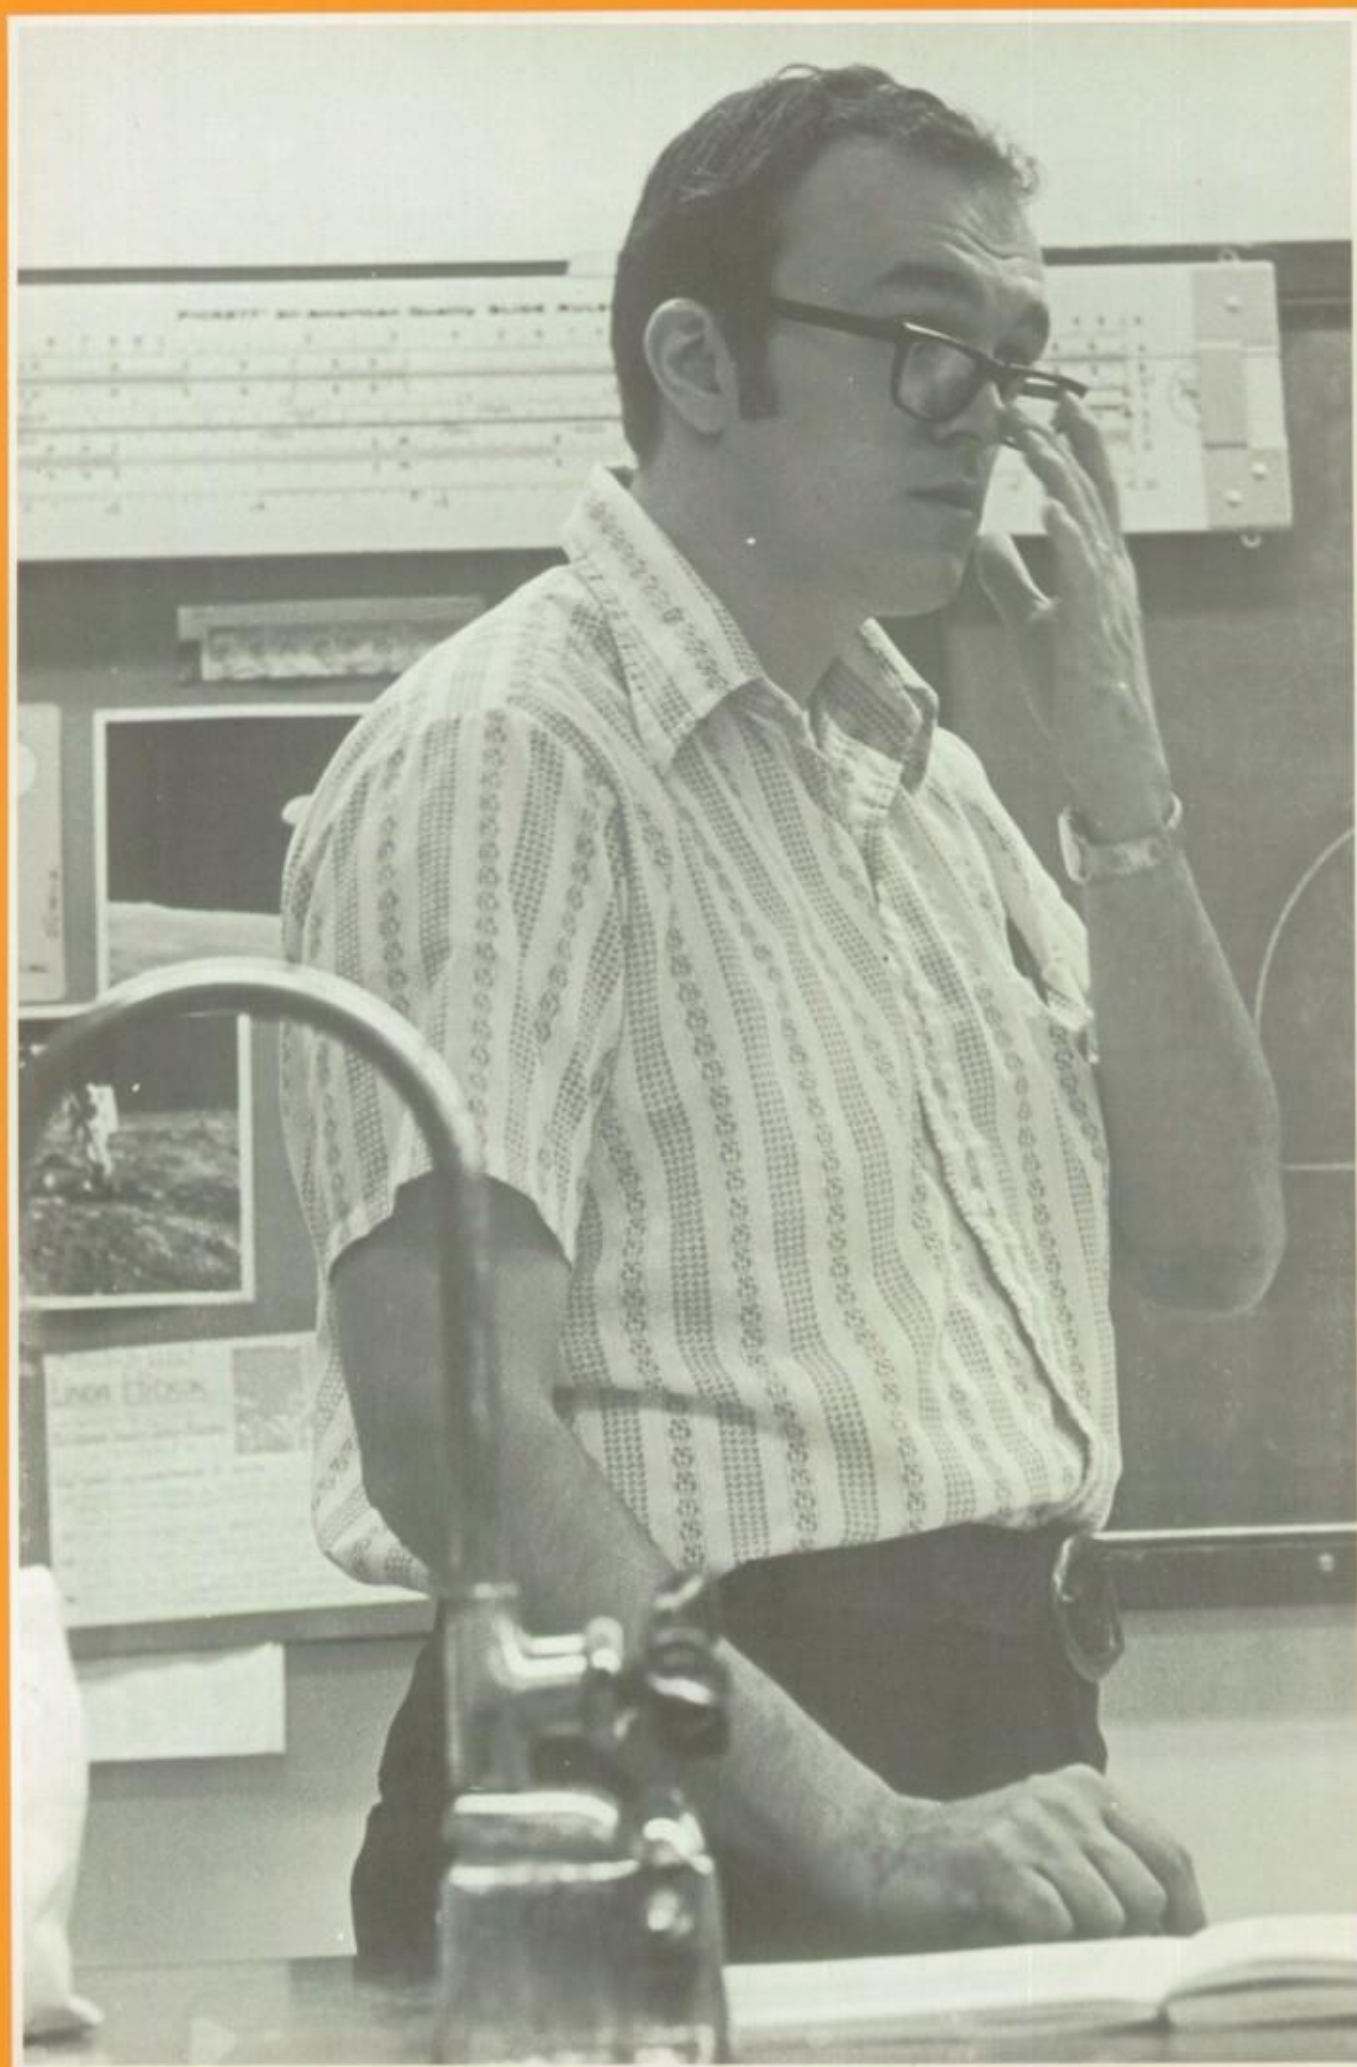

We live our lives
 In search of a lost chord,
 Maybe a last chord,
 To play just "one more time."
 A chord in a forgotten song
 Of pressures, time, work, and play;
 Of tears, both joy and sorrowful sadness;
 Of lunchtime songs, laughs, and smokes.
 We live our lives
 In search of a flying banner:
 One we can fly for ourselves
 To make a mirror of our hopes,
 Our dreams, our realities,
 Siphoned out of alternate school years
 When the sand and warm of sun
 Were the classrooms.
 Twelve long years is a long search
 For a chord; a banner;
 A song to sing; And oh!
 The many songs we've sung
 On crowded, sweaty, wooden seats,
 And cheering, swaying, waving voices.
 Victory! Defeat . . .
 We'll find what we need
 When we look and we see
 A shadow of dedications
 Giving indications
 Of past feelings and the future road to be.
 "Remember when . . ."
 "Oh yeah; and the time when Mrs. . . ."
 Too fresh now,
 Too stale now,
 And all so far away.
 Play it just "one more time."
 Please?

SOPHIE MIKUS
DEBBIE MEGGINSON
RONNIE WILLIAMS

The most necessary ingredient for a good education
Is an outstanding faculty.
Spring Woods had this.
Their job was to teach every student
In each of his subjects.
Their dedication to this purpose was
Through failures and apathy.
And their dedication to the students
Saw them counseling the failures,
Trying to undo the harm,
And trying extra-hard to Transform the apathy to excitement.
As with any generalization,
There were exceptions.
These were the few who
Felt their job was to control
A classroom for six hours
And then leave.
But many stayed after
To sponsor clubs and
Help classes with projects
And chaperone functions.
These were the ones who Won students over
To their sides as friends.
Suffering much criticism,
The administration, staff, and faculty
Worked hard to overcome their weaknesses.
The result was a winning faculty.

The Decision-Makers

The School Board was comprised
Of seven community leaders.
Monday night meetings were spent
Debating problems of importance
To the whole school district.
Funds were allocated for operations
And new construction was approved
For the ever-increasing enrollment.
The Board set dress standards,
And on the question of School policies, they designated
Each principal responsible
For enforcement.
The public's approval of the School Board was demonstrated
In November when the voters
Re-elected all incumbents
To their respective positions.

Dr. H. M. Landrum listens as the School Board meeting gets underway.

Denton Murphy, Secretary, listens as previous meeting minutes are approved.

Arthur LeBlanc, considers proposed easement requests.

Board members discuss the purchase of new school busses.

Jack Ballard, Helen Morrow, Nolan Morgan, Wade Pogue, and Elmer Hinkle review the 1971-72 school calendar.

Jack Ballard and Helen Morrow listen to proposed construction.

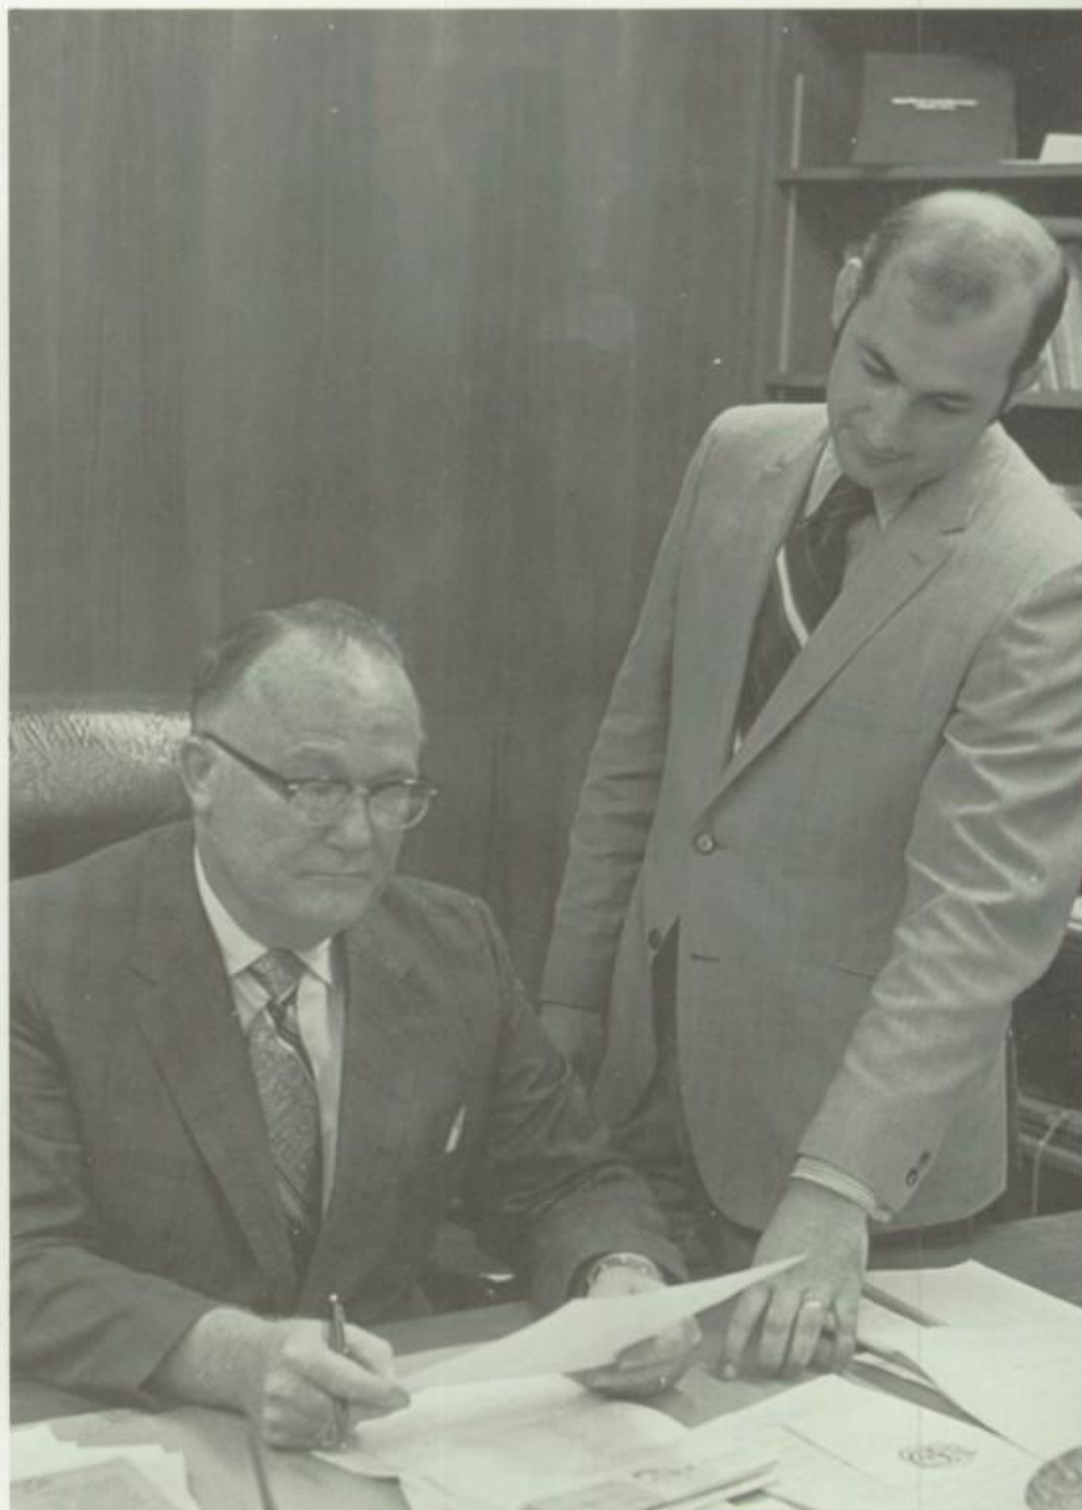

Charles Meeks reports on proposed improvements for Tully Stadium.

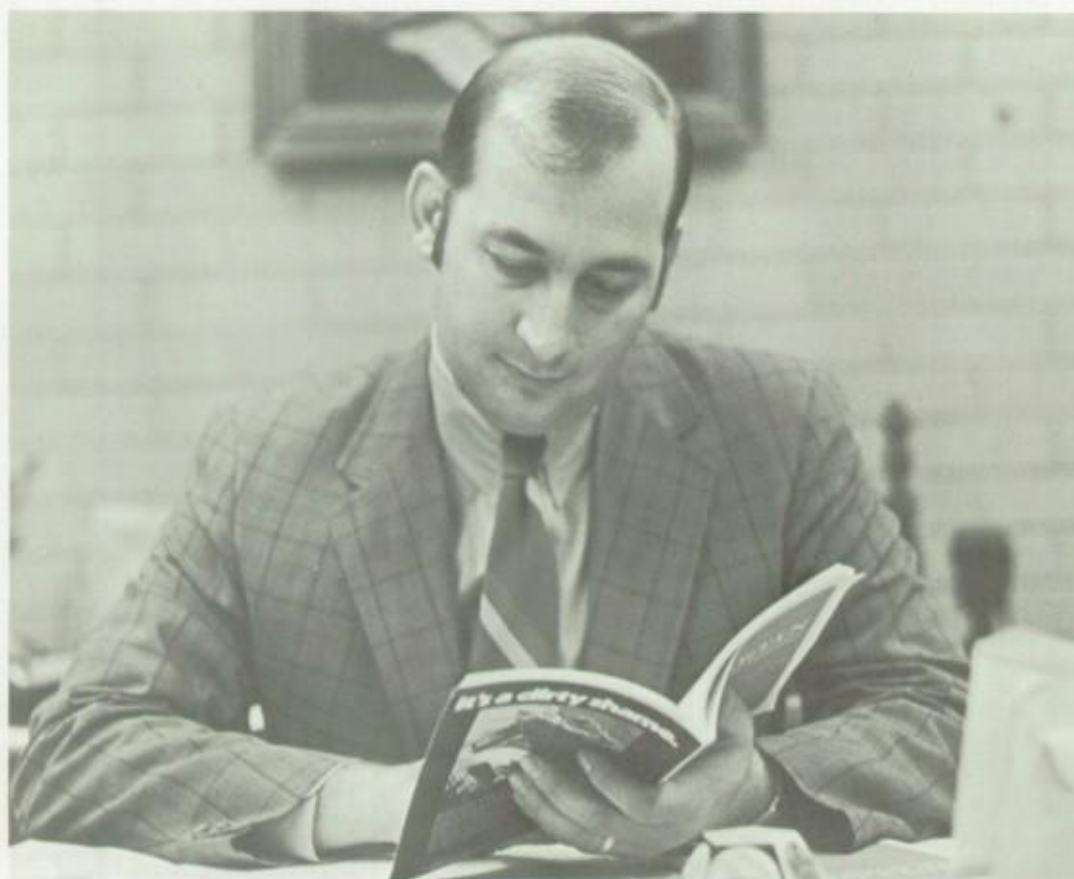

Nolan Morgan, Superintendent for Business, discusses lunchroom price increases.

Principle Principals

Mr. W. W. Emmons and Mr. E. Davis
Held a great responsibility in Supervising the 4300 students,
Teachers, and staff
Of Spring Woods High School.
Teachers and students sought advice
In planning various school activities.
They were often required to Meet the community or School Board
On behalf of the school.
Mr. Emmons, head principal,
Presented scholarships and awards
To outstanding students and
Crowned the annual homecoming queen.
Mr. Davis, administrative principal,
Sponsored the Student Council.
Many of their duties took
Them away from the school.
These trips included many Conferences and conventions
Where they learned of new Ideas in secondary education
And how to improve the image
They faithfully supported.

Mr. F. Dealy and Mr. D. Mathias review the snack bar area during lunch.

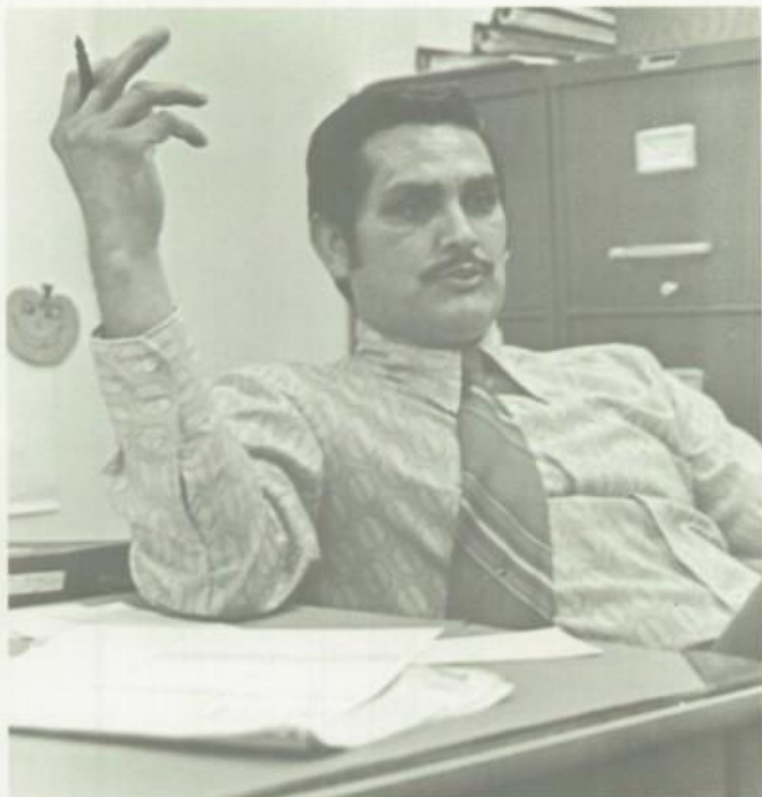

Mr. E. Atsinger greets a concerned parent in his office.

Mr. C. Vann looks over a memo concerning a student.

Secondary Principals

The grade level principals helped Maintain routine by
 Dealing directly with every student.
 Guidelines provided by the School Board
 Were enforced by their
 Guidance and judgment.
 Students felt their presence
 Everyday and at all school functions.
 Two new principals,
 Mr. F. Dealy and Mr. E. Atsinger,
 Brought novel ideas and renewed awareness
 To their relations with students.

Mr. J. Zamora checks a transcript with a student.

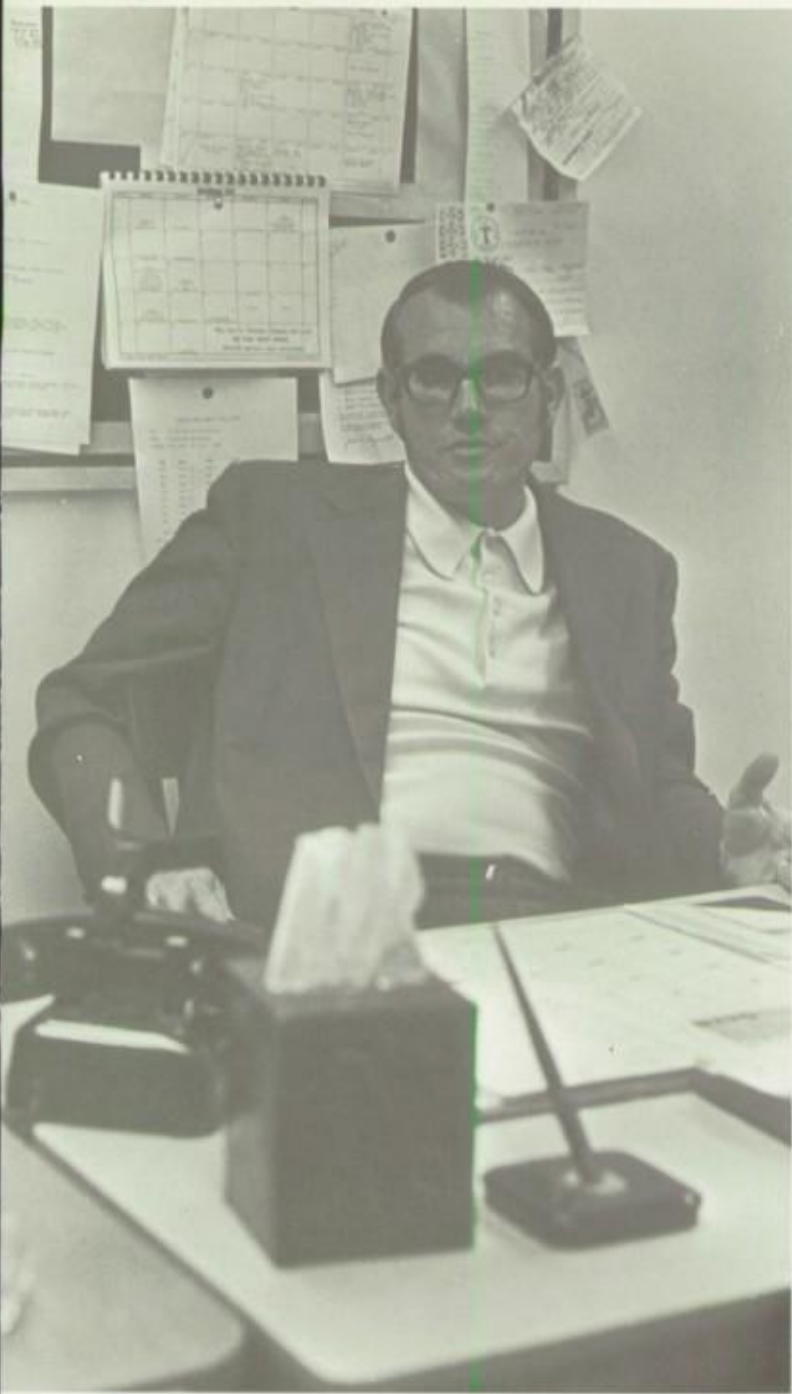

Miss L. McCleary discusses college choices with seniors Gary Phrem and Todd Wehner.

Advise and Consent

Counselors
 Advised students
 On the planning of their Academic futures,
 While assigning schedules
 And recommending courses.
 Many played an important role
 In shaping
 Post-graduation plans.
 They held conferences
 With students and
 Their parents
 And administered
 Standardized tests.
 Taking a personal interest
 In every student,
 Counselors played
 A deciding role
 In many lives.

Principal Aides

The Office staff performed
 Routine tasks which enabled
 The school to function smoothly.
 Secretaries to the principals
 Made appointments, took messages,
 And dealt with complaints
 And correspondence.
 The Registrar's duties included
 Admitting new students,
 Handling withdrawals,
 And forwarding transcripts.
 Secretaries in the admittance office
 Recorded attendance, dismissals,
 Absences, and delivered messages.
 Their duties were vital
 To the continuation
 Of the school.

A Creative Outlet

Language Arts teachers reviewed
The routine tasks of
Grammar and vocabulary.
They spent long hours in Critical studies of the Great works of literature.
Interest was heightened by Records, films, and
A special program of ballads
Performed by the Chorale.
They conveyed new ideas
Hoping to stimulate Creative expression.

Universal Communicators

Foreign Language instructors
Helped students
Gain an understanding
Of different peoples
Through communication.
For many, grammar and Pronunciation were
Complex obstacles to be overcome.
Proper motivation by teachers
Made students realize
The potential for new opportunities
For travel and friends
Through a common language.

The importance of functional ideas.
To provide special help
For needy students,
Extra hours were spent
Outside of classes.
Many used games, class competition
And varied media
To stimulate students' interest.
They encouraged students'
Patience and determination
In a difficult task that was Ultimately rewarding.

Exploration and Experimentation

Science became tolerable
Under the direction of the science faculty.
They had the time and humor
To cope with lab mistakes
And puzzled expressions.
From the general courses
To the specialized,
The teachers explored
The varied fields of Biology, chemistry, and physics.
With the instructors' guidance
And the students' determination,
Science became a fulfilling experience.

Any institution as large as a school is a Very important part of the community. And under the present system, Business determines the community. Realizing this two-way relationship, Stores and students support each other. In return for students' participation in Worthwhile endeavors and activities, Stores aid them in the form of financial Contributions, discounts, and free materials. Teens' buying power, statistically large, but Seemingly small, is mostly spent in the neighborhood. On the following pages, ads have been purchased by Local merchants in hopes of attracting more income. Business is business, and to make this book As efficient as possible, Three indexes follow the ads. In a school as large as Spring Woods, it often seems That faces are lost in the crowd. The Students and Faculty Index helps by Singling out one face from the rest on our crowded pages. With space limited, it is impossible to picture Every member of every organization. Credit for everyone's participation is noted In the Organizations Index. And lastly, with four years of Activities and honors completed, The graduates have summarized their High school career in the Senior Credits.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all and most of all, many thanks to the staff for their hard work and their play and the good times.

Thanks to Mr. W. W. Emmons and especially the faculty for excusing us from classes when we had to replace the lost pages burned by mistake.

Appreciation for D-eon Priest and his counselling.

For pictures, thanks to Jim Steurmer, Mike Young, Bill Carter, and Andy P. Byrd.

Thanks to Jimmy Lewis for Homecoming pictures, supplies, and

To Steve Stone, personal thanks for "coming to the rescue."

Thanks to our advertisers for helping to make our book possible.

For artwork and ads drawn, thanks to Vicki O'Connell, Brent Clanton, and Connie Estep.

Thanks to Liz Dixon for hours of work on the General Index.

For her hard work on the Senior Index, thanks to Debbie Megginson.

Thanks to Trisha Teubner for work on the Club Index.

Thanks to the regit staff for not only working on their publication but ours as well.

The winning spirit prevailed all year.
 A drive established in the sports and
 Contests of the fall carried all the teams
 And organizations to spring highlights.
 Based on past outstanding performances,
 The Band and Tigerettes were issued an invitation
 To New Orleans for an August football game.
 The Prep Bowl team competed commendably
 In the Grand Championship Finals in May.
 Over 350 students received due recognition
 For awards, scholarships, and achievements
 Won during the past year on Honors Night.
 The last week in May,
 Underclassmen won a few months' reprieve
 And the seniors won their freedom finally.
